Big Western Rodeo Slated At Community Fair In July

Wild cheers of "Ride 'em cowboy, hold 'im, bust 'im," and "Get a horse!" will ring out at the Jaycee-sponsored Community Fair, 220th and Western avenue, on the afternoon of July 16 and 17, when the big western rodeo becomes the featured attraction.

According to Jack Phillips, chairman of this special event, this will be something new to Torrance.

"The Wild West will be brought here for certain," he said, "when the rodeo comes to town. And I don't know of there having been a rodeo in Torrance before. There'll be plenty of fire-snotin' broncos, steers, and experts with the lariat, too!"

Four thousand seats will be available for each of the two afternoon shows, he added.

Adding more fire to the excitement over the Fair was the announcement yesterday that Mitzi Trimiew, Torrance high school junior, has been selected as queen candidate by the Jay-Cettes, wives auxiliary organization to the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Dark-eyed Mitzi was an attendant to the Homecoming Queen this year, and next fall will enter North Torrance high school as one of the first senior class there. "She is trying out for Song Queen, selection of whom is based on popularity in the local high schools.

To become Community Fair Queen, a girl must first be sponsored by a recognized Torrance service organization and then sell fair tickets with the help of her backers. Many prizes are offered the winner.

ANTHONY'S ADVENTURES

Lots of people have been asking why daddy and mommy close the store from 2:00 to 4:30 every weekday. Daddy says it's because that's the real continental way of operating. Mommy says it's so that daddy can get home and work in the yard a little bit.

We live across from the new city hall. Our neighbor, "uncle" Johnny, calls the new city hall site "tumbleweed square." But daddy says they are really going to work on it now. "Uncle" Johnny says that's not so—he says they're just planting a new crop of tumbleweeds for next year.

Anyway, our yard used to look real nice. But since we opened the store it's kind of gone to pot. So I guess the real reason for our 2:00 to 4:30 siesta is what mommy said—we've got to get the yard in shape again. Also it's real nice for me. Sometimes during the siesta daddy and mommy play ball with me. And I get to water the lawn for mommy too. It's lots of fun, just like taking a bath.

I've got to apologize for a mistake in last week's column. The liquor store next to Dave's Shell station is owned by Mr. Tracy. And it's a good place to shop. Mr. Tracy has lots of nice packaged delicatessen items as well as liquor.

You know that you can come to our place and eat a real good Italian dinner. But you also can take the food home. Either way is good. But the best for you is what you prefer. Bye-bye.

Street Lights On Blink-- It's Old Age

Street light trouble along automobile row on Cabrillo is the result of just one thing . . . old age, City Manager George Stevens said this week.

"We try to repair the lights as soon as they go out," he said. "We're faced on Cabrillo with an old worn-out circuit. We may have to revamp the whole set-up."

Several members of the Torrance Kiwanis Club recently enjoyed a visit and afternoon of golf with members of the Arcadia Kiwanis Club in Arcadia.
