2 Boys Hurt On Bicycles

Two boys were hurt when their bicycles collided with vehicles in separate accidents last Wednesday.

Buddy White, 8, of 25207 Weston rd., received a serious head injury and was taken to Harbor General hospital after a collision with an auto at 204th st. and Harvard ave.

Driver of the car was Mrs. Anna Gates, 42, of 1535 W. 204th st.

Treated for cuts and bruises was Danny Richey, of 4331 W. 179th st., after a collision with a trailer pulled by a car driven by George C. Nelson, 31, of 3185 Almeria st., San Pedro.

The accident took place in front of the boy's home.

Everyone Sees Double As Twins Win Contest

Twins Linda Lee Searle and Sharon Lee Searle of 512 E. 224th street, Wilmington, voted the set which looked most alike, were named grand prize winners in the first annual Hermosa Beach-Twin Pontiac twin contest. The judging which brought out scores of sets of twins was held last Sunday on the premises of Twin Pontiac, 505 Pacific Coast highway, Hermosa Beach.

Second and third place in the Most Alike classification went to 3 months old girls Debra Jane Ridge and Darlene Lee Ridge, 2436 West 255th street, Lomita, and Charlene Lee Di Luccia and Darlene Dee Di Luccia, 5301 West 116th street, Los Angeles.

Voted prettiest twins were 3 1/2 year old Sandra and Debra Hampton, 3433 West 229th place, Torrance.

Elsaine and Edith Tweed, 18500 Burin avenue, Redondo Beach, tied with Carolyn Joy Hudson and Karol Roy Hudson, 2113 Del Monte Lane, North Redondo Beach, in the "Most Unalike Twins" division.

Born only two weeks before, on June 16, Jeffrey Steven Barton and Michael Charles Barton 1216 Monterey, Hermosa Beach, were named the youngest twins present.

Oldest twins present, Eugene Stidham and Carlton Stidham, 1540 West 186th street, Gardena, were born February 4, 1938.

"This will be an annual event" Robert and Richard Greenwald, twin owners of Twin Pontiac, announced.

Prizes and silk ribbon were awarded to all winners.

P-T-A Names Officers

Installation of officers was held at the last meeting of Hall-dale P-T-A. Installed for the coming year were: Mesdames David Goolsby, president; Ray Rhoads, first vice-president; John Ryland, second vice-president; Leroy Landon, recording secretary; E. N. Reese, financial secretary; Robert J. Doran, corresponding secretary; Judson Bowers, treasurer; W. L. Harvey, historian; E. E. Salcido, parliamentarian; Bill Overstreet, auditor.

At Fort Ord Encampment

Representing Torrance high school at the summer encampment of the California Cadet Corps at Fort Ord recently were Jesse Walton Glance, Michael Francis Luongo, Katashi Tom Nakawatase, Jerrell Lee Wood, Fred Balow, Spencer Gatewood, Wayne M. McCorvey, and Zane Zandel.

Under the guidance of Colonel C. A. Royston, Cadet Corps Executive Officer and 52 faculty members, the cadets moved into Fort Ord's East Garrison and set up a Regimental Headquarters with Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Turner Johnson of Compton, California, as Commandant of Cadets.

During the two weeks training period, the cadets went through a thorough program of preliminary rifle instruction, firing on the range, field problems, fire prevention, care and handling of firearms and other relative military subjects. They watched the sixth Infantry Division trainees going through basic training and attended a

British Scientists Tour Harvey Aluminum Plant

Members of England's distinguished Royal Aeronautical Society visited the facilities of Harvey Aluminum, Wednesday afternoon, June 29.

The encampment ended with a formal review of all troops before Faculty Officers, Sixth Division Officers and service club guests; and a presentation of the annual awards to the outstanding members of the California Cadet Corps.

bring their own picnic lunches and gather in the park around noon.

Organizing the event are Mrs. Dorothy (DeWitt) Fulton, FA. 8-7289, and Mrs. Cecelia (Bidwell) Hattrup, DA. 9-7456.

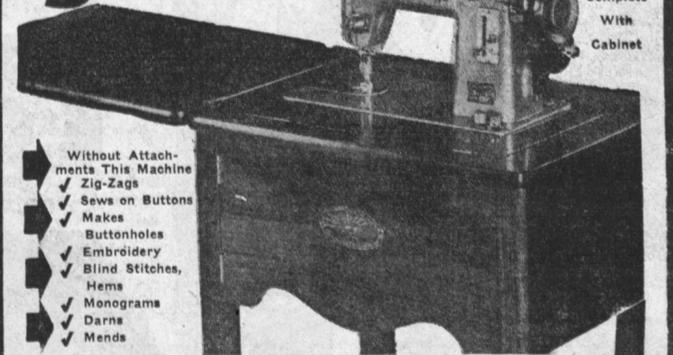

Proposed changes in Federal Social Security will be discussed at a meeting of the local — Old Age Pension Group — in Torrance on June 14th, Thursday, 10:30 A.M. at Moose Hall at 1744 W. Carson Street.

Changes are proposed in bills introduced in Congress by U. S. Senator Estes Kefauver of Tenn. and Representative James Roosevelt of California, and designed to make the Social Security Act more realistic with today's social welfare program.

Bills which would among other things reduce the retirement age of women from 65 to 60 years.
