Dramatists to Present 'The Valiant'

Center staging, the newest form of play production, will be featured here when the Torrance Theater Guild presents "The Valiant" on the stage of Torrance High School on Saturday, July 30.

In center staging, the audience is seated around the stage and all action takes place inside the circle.

Rehearsals are well under way and sets and costumes are nearing completion for the production, according to Lou Bereskin, Torrance High School drama coach and director of the Guild.

"The Valiant" concerns a young man who has been condemned to death and all action takes place within the prison. Cast in the five roles of the drama are Mary Braden, feminine lead; Neil Mahon, male lead; Terry Baker, the priest; Herman Cobrea, the jailer; and Raymond Davis, as the warden. All are Torrance High School students.

Tickets to the play, which will begin at 8 p.m., will be available at the door of the auditorium. The Torrance Theater Guild is sponsored by the city's recreation department.

THESPIAN . . . Raymond Davis plays the part of Warden Holt in the stirring drama "The Valiant" to be presented by the Torrance Theater Guild on Saturday, July 30 at the Civic Auditorium.

Big Crowd Expected at Car Rodeo

A throng of car-enthusiasts are expected to turn out this Sunday for the car rodeo being staged at the Douglas parking lot on Western avenue, near 190th street.

Set to begin at 10 a.m., the event is expected to run until late afternoon. It is being sponsored by the Torrance Police Car Club, an organization of teen-agers interested in autos. Admission to the rodeo will be free to spectators, and the competition is open to the public.

A refreshment stand and a booth exhibiting two custom cars and mechanical displays will be open all day Sunday, it was reported.
