CRENSHAW and ROSECRANS

'Bones' Drop Third Game

The Crenshaw "Hambones" lost their third straight game last week by a score of 9-0. The game turned into a very exciting contest, when in the last inning the Hambones found themselves with bases loaded and only one away.

However, they were not able to capitalize and lost the game, according to directors at Crenshaw playground.

Al Zar and Richard Groomes, coaches of the Crenshaw "Angels," 10-inch softball team, report that their players are shaping up to end the season with a flurry. They have been working together for the last

Club Makes Donation to Ball Teams

The Walteria business men have donated $100 toward the purchase of baseball hats and shirts for Walaeria park Pee Wee and Midget ball teams.

The business men have been gram put on by the recreation department for developing youngsters in playing ball, a spokesman for the club said. Over sixty Pee Wee's turned

Federal Job

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced examination for Social Worker and for Occupational Therapist for filling positions paying from $3410 to $4060 a year. All positions to be filled are located at Washington, D. C., and vicinity.
