Guitar Program Set For Bandshell Sunday

The final in a series of programs sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department will be presented by the Melody Music Studio on Sunday, September 18, from 1 to 3 p.m., at the Torrance Park bandshell. This is the second year and the third time that the music center has given a recital in the park. The all-guitar studio hopes to use 50 all-steel Spanish guitars in exclusive band numbers and specialty numbers to be presented by the group. One of the specialty numbers will be given by Brian Simpson who will do a special number on the three neck steel guitar accompanied by his father on the Spanish guitar.

COCKER DIES OF RABIES

A black cocker spaniel named "Nitecap" died of rabies a week ago Wednesday, according to Health Department officials. The dog was owned by Edward Viening, 117 6th street Manhattan. The dog had had contact with possibly five individuals, it was reported.

El Camino College Faculty Reaches 158

Twenty-eight new instructors met classes at El Camino college Monday, twenty of them filling new positions created by increase of enrollment and eight as replacements or exchange teachers. Addition of the new college instructors brings the faculty and administrative staff up to 158 persons. Newcomers this year include one assistant librarian, George C. Elser, who will replace Miss Helen E. Rodgers, now doing library work for one year in an army dependent school in Japan. Elser comes to El Camino from a teaching position at Valparaiso university in Indiana. Nine instructors have joined the teaching staff in the field of science and mathematics. Instructors and their fields are Howard H. Abrams, chemistry; Miss Patricia Baron, physical education; Wallis J. De Spain, engineering; Haskell E. Goldman, mathematics; Mrs. Geraldine Karpel, physics; Peter John Mel, life science and zoology; Clifford R. Minner, life science; Harry Frank Perry, physical education, and George A. Stanich, physical education. Classes in applied arts will be taught by five new teachers, Charles D. Alden, drafting and air conditioning, and John E. Galden, art; Charles R. Haag, piano; Richard L. Oliver, arts and crafts, and Robert Poe, accounting. New instructors in the fields of humanities and social studies are William J. Flatley, theatre arts; Frederick W. Hile, speech; Louis A. Mays, Spanish; Lloyd Newcomer, English; Miss Virginia Pfiffner, psychology; Sherman B. Sheffield, United States and world history; Gerhardus H. Snijders, English; George Stanley, psychology and speech.
