

TORRANCE RESIDENT HONORED . . . Mrs. Marie Tully, 17002 Delia avenue, Torrance, has been cited by the Associated In-Group Donors charitable giving organization for her outstanding volunteer service to the welfare causes affiliated with AID. Mrs. Tully, a member of the personnel activities staff of Northrop Aircraft, Inc., assisted in the establishment and organization of the AID program among North-rop's 22,000 personnel. Shown above participating in the award ceremony are, from left: John B. Clark, Northrop's director of industrial relations; Admiral Robert W. Berry, AID's director of special projects; Mrs. Tully; and Charles Fleishman, president of the A. J. Bayer Company and member of AID's board of directors, who made the presentation.

Distinguished Service Award To Be Presented By Jaycees

In keeping with presentations to be made nationwide by Junior Chambers of Commerce during Jaycee Week, the Jaycees here in Torrance will present a Distinguished Service Award key and plaque to Torrance's outstanding young man.

Selection of the recipient is being made by a committee of local leading citizens and the award is to be presented after approval of the committee's nominee by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce who affords the recognition through the local organization.

The award will be presented January 19, 1956 to the young man the judges believe has contributed the most to the welfare of this community during the past twelve months. Harry L. Klinger, Jr., Jaycee chairman, emphasized that the winner need not be a member of any Jaycee organization.

At the same time as Torrance's outstanding young man is honored by Torrance's Jaycees, more than 2,000 other young men will be recognized in similar ceremonies by Jaycees all over America.

Meantime, in Springfield Illinois, the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce will be saluting January 14, 1956, the 10 Americans selected as the most outstanding young men of the nation. The awards in Springfield will be made by Richard Nixon, Vice-president of the United States, a past winner of this annual award, and Hugh F. McKenna, President of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce.

D. C. and Major Joseph Wilkins, stationed in Madrid, Spain with the U. S. Air Corps.

EXCEPTIONAL BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY
COMMISSARY MANAGER

Due to a recent development of a new type infra-red-ray sandwich oven, we are interested in securing the services of a man or woman in the trade area covered by this publication. Party selected must package nationally advertised food products and deliver same twice weekly to accounts established by our company. These accounts will be established in taverns, bars, clubs, bowling alleys, theatres, industrial plants, etc. There will be no selling required. Present established commissary managers are making around $400 per month part time, and up to $2000 per month full time, depending of course on the size of the territory. This is not a vending or get rich quick promotion, hence high pressure applicants are not desired. An initial investment of $1500 is required to secure equipment and stock allocated to the territory. We also require good references. If sincerely interested, fully qualified, write in detail about yourself to: F. C. Harris, General Manager, Associated Industries Building, 1016 East 65th, Seattle 5, Washington.

GREENE PLAYS TOP ROLE IN TV DRAMA

Joe Greene, noted TV and motion picture character actor, was seen in one of three leading roles on the GE Theatre Sunday, December 18, where he played the part of a southern hotel owner in "Let It Rain."

Greene operates the Harbor Drive-In Theatre in Torrance when not working on a TV or film production.

Greene was chosen for the role when he was spotted in "Gangbusters" and because of his own southern background, having been born in North Carolina, locale of the story.

Greene played opposite Ronald Reagan and Cloris Leachman who provided the love interest. Greene carried the comedy part.

He will appear this Friday night, December 30, on "Gangbusters," on channel 9, at 8:30 p.m. He will play the role of "Mr. Murdock," a bank robber.

Services Slated for T. Wilkins

Services will be held Friday, December 30, at 2 p.m., for Torrey Wilkins, 44, of 23033 Humber st., who died of a heart attack Monday.

Wilkins had just driven to the Torrance Lincoln-Mercury dealership when he slumped over the wheel and suffered the attack, according to police records.

Services will be held at Stone and Myers, corner Engracia and Cravens, with interment scheduled for Green Hills cemetery.

Wilkins, who was born in Omaha, Nebraska, had lived in Torrance for the past three years.

He was a salesman, specializing in personal insurance and advertising.

He is survived by his wife, Valda; a son, Torrey, Jr., 5 years old; and three brothers, Harry Wilkins of Hollywood, Fraser Wilkins of Washington.
