

First Senior Class Will Present First Senior Play

The first Senior class of North Torrance high school will present the first Senior Play on Friday, March 23, at the Torrance high school auditorium. "Young April," a family comedy will be the presentation on this historical occasion.

and the technical director is Bernard Hoefler. Arlene Lesar is student director for the play. "Young April" is a sequel to "Growing Pains" and tells about the experiences of the McIntyre family. The play, which is enlivened by frequent bits of humor, is about the inter-reactions of parents and youngsters.

Some of the seniors at North High in the play are: Ray Davis, Nora Cummings, Joan Reed, Jim Powers, Eddie McNamera, Gerry Terhagen, Judy Okada, Arny Willemson, Billy Reeves, Jean Pasquerilla, Janice Sellers, Carole Fair, Johanne Parker, and Jeanne Shifferd.

Baker's New Magnavox HQ

Magnavox this week announced the appointment of Baker's TV and Appliances, 1344 El Prado, as a direct factory franchised dealer authorized to handle Magnavox.

A BUNDLE OF IDEAS—Kefa Harris, 4234 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance, can attest to the large volume of suggestions turned in at Douglas Aircraft's El Segundo division. She's the gal in the plant office who stamps them and sets up a file for each individual suggestion.

Holds Court Out In Park

Junior High Troop 1368, sponsored by Crenshaw PTA, held a cook out at El Retiro park recently.

They practiced safety in building a campfire, cooked food among the embers, and practiced fire drill before extinguishing the fire.

Carl Ahee, vice-principal at North High school, accompanied one patrol in setting up a drill for the cooks to follow after lunch. The girls also measured their Scout pace and played games in the park.

Albright Will Speak For Toastmasters

Scott Albright of the National Supply co., who resides at 2512 Sierra st., Torrance, will represent the Torrance Toastmasters club in the area 10 speech contest which will be held at the Western Club in Gardena on Tuesday, March 20, 7 pm.

Albright has a speaker's trophy which he won in the Torrance club last fall. If he adds the area 10 cup to his trophy list next Tuesday night, he will be eligible to compete in the district contest in April.

Ladies and guests have been invited to attend this meeting which will start at 7 pm. after a half hour of social time.

Pupils from the Reno's school of accordian will entertain the guests under the leadership of Lee Schwartz.

Theme for the evening is "The Wind Bags."

California Bank Tells Appointment

William M. Reuss Jr. has been appointed manager of California bank's Wilmington office, succeeding W. D. Morris, Frank L. King, president, announced today. Morris, manager of the Wilmington office since 1949, will be assigned to the bank's head office staff in the near future.

Reuss, a native of Chicago, is a graduate of the University of Illinois where he majored in business administration. He was associated with a credit firm in Los Angeles from 1939 to 1949 with the exception of three years spent in the Army during World War II.

He attained the rank of captain and while on duty in Europe received several decorations including the Order of the Purple Heart.

He joined the staff of California bank in July, 1949, and was assigned to the installment loan department of the bank's Atlantic-Whittier office. Since 1954 he has been manager of the installment loan department at the Torrance office.

During his years in Wilmington, Morris has taken an active part in civic affairs. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis and the advisory board of the Red Cross. He is a graduate of San Pedro high school and joined the staff of California bank in 1936 as bookkeeper at the San Pedro office.

Dolores St. Crosswalks

Safety of school children in the area was the recommendation given last week by County Supervisor Burton W. Chace for crosswalks with advance warning markings along Dolores street at the south line of 235th street.

the crosswalks and the markings will allow for the protection of school children pedestrians crossing at this intersection.

In order to provide sufficient visibility at the crosswalk approach, the Supervisor recommended to the County Road Department that red curb markings be placed on the east side of Dolores street for a distance of 20 feet south of the intersection of 235th street.
