

Dedication Ceremonies For T-Timers Club Garage

The T-Timers club roared off to a power-packed start when numerous civic dignitaries, and interested individuals attended the grand opening ceremonies of the T-Timers auto repair garage at 298 North Pacific avenue, Redondo Beach, recently.

Mayor J. Russell Shea of Redondo Beach, who encouraged the club's purpose and activities, spoke briefly on the purpose, advantages, and activities of the group which is open to boys 16 years and older.

The spacious garage provides opportunity for young car enthusiasts to work on their automobiles.

Attending the ceremonies and speaking briefly were Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance and Gary Sigman, secretary; Joe Surber, treasurer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Herma Tillim, Mrs. Sue Burk, Bertie Nolan of Hollywood, and Jean Burnham, of Redondo high school. Mrs. Burk baked a two-foot double layer chocolate and white cake for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stassin, of 1029 Cravens, announce the birth of a son, Kevin Frederick, weighing 7 pounds and 10 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert G. Thomas, of 26417 Zephyr, announce the birth of a son, Del Steven, weighing 8 pounds and 2 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Burgins, of 418 W. 140th St., announce the birth of a daughter, Brenda Sue, weighing 7 pounds and 3 ounces.

Lovely Trees from Tiny Saplings Grow

It was tree planting time at Crenshaw elementary school, recently. The PTA board donated three flowering eucalyptus trees and a nearby nursery donated two flowering peach trees when the PTA board members sought advice on tree planting.

Members of the Student Advisory council were on hand to assist the PTA board in the planting.

Crenshaw elementary PTA held its regular March meeting recently at the school cafeteria.

Election of officers was held. There was a panel discussion of teen-agers and parents following the film, "Farewell to Childhood."

A skating party was held at Tor Roller Drome on Monday, March 12.

Mrs. Charles Hall, ways and means chairman, reported that prizes in the recent paper sale were won by Helen Wieman's class for the K2 grades, Mabel Ashley's class for grades 3 to 5, and Robert McSpadden's class for grades 6 to 8.
