SOMETHING FOR THE EYE
This eye magnet, for the removal of magnetic foreign bodies from the eye, was presented to the Torrance Memorial hospital by the Lions club as part of its sight conservation program. The club's annual White Cane Day helps finance such projects. Seen (l-r) are: Dr. John Nursall and Warren Hamilton, of the sight conservation committee, while Club President Abe Robinson presents the eye magnet to Hospital Administrator Leonard Enslinger.—Press Photo.

Beck Receives GP Appointment

Ralph D. Beck has been appointed civil engineer at General Petroleum corporation's Torrance refinery. It was announced today. He replaces L. E. Battelle, who retired recently.

Beck has been employed at the refinery since 1953 and has held the positions of draftsman-supervisor and assistant civil engineer. He has worked for General Petroleum since 1942.

A graduate of the University of Southern California, he resides at 1548 West 110th place, Los Angeles.

"SO BIG"
Having trouble making ends meet is little three-year-old Marvin Morton. He was caught in the act by Val Daniels of 1629 Beech st., Torrance, who emerges as the sixth week finalist in the amateur division in the Torrance Press photo contest. Winners will be announced next week.

Advance Gifts Chairmen Named In Chest Campaign

Men who will head solicitation of pace-setting advance gifts for Community Chest's 168 agencies from the Harbor's most able and generous givers today were announced by Harbor Area Advance Gifts Chairman Donald Armstrong of Torrance.

Wilmington advance gifts chairman is Frodie B. Kilstofte, president of the Rossman Mill and Lumber company in Wilmington and veteran Chest volunteer.

San Pedro advance gifts chairman is Denver L. Bullock, local insurance man and head of the firm which bears his name.

Torrance advance gifts chairman is K. S. Avera, manager of the Edison company there.

Gardena advance gifts chairman is Robert R. Kane, public accountant.

Kilstofte, chairman of the convention committee of the Wilmington Lion's club, on the board of directors of the Harbor Shrine club and a member of Los Angeles Al Malakah Temple, holds a 25-year pin for his continuous years of Community Chest service.

Avera, member of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis club, has campaigned as a Chest advance gifts and commerce and industry committeeman, as Red Cross business chairman of Torrance and for the Torrance Memorial hospital.

All advance gifts chairmen and committeemen will compete for possession of the Frodie B. Kilstofte Trophy to be held by the city whose advance gifts division exceeds its quota by the greatest percentage in the coming Chest campaign.

SHUFFLEBOARD SCORE 19-13

The Bixby Park Shuffleboard Club recently visited the Torrance Adult Club, to play a return tournament match.

A summary of the score—19 Torrance, 13 Long Beach.

Members, friends and guests had a most enjoyable day, according to Mrs. Maude Jepsen, entertainment chairman. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Jepsen's committee. Cards were played during the afternoon, while the tournament was completed.
