Dance Studio Adds Teacher To Tap Staff

The Bettie Thomas Studios of 121 Crenshaw Blvd. announce that they have added to their staff a new tap teacher Ann Olson Sciarrotta.

Mrs. Sciarrotta, the former Ann Olson, who has been teaching in Torrance for nine years has presented many recitals and programs throughout the city. At least thirty of her former students have been presented on various television talent shows including "Your Town's Talent," Harry Babbitt, Gene Norman and Al Jarvis Shows and others.

Mrs. Sciarrotta studied for fifteen years at the Bud Murray studios in Hollywood under such teachers as Alice Como, Byron Crammer, Masha Beyo, Steffa Dellese, Joy Healey, Bob Miller, Edwardo Cassino and many others.

Dorothy Beatty also on the staff teaches the Cecchetti Graded Method of ballet. Mrs. Beatty has studied with Mia Slavinska, Olga Fricke, Germaine Ballou, Ann Douglas and Juanulis Puodzunis.

A. J. Lonergan who teaches tap, ballet, and modern jazz danced in High Button Shoes, Song of Norway and St. Louis Municipal opera.

He studied with Madam Nijinska, Michel Panieff, Gene Loring, Arthur Prince, Olga Lunich and the Sherman School of Dance in New York City.

Soroptimist Club Enjoy Card Party

A card party was given by the Soroptimist International of Torrance-Gardena at the lovely home of Mrs. Mary Pagac, on Post ave.

Frances Dimitri and Virginia Fischer greeted members and friends at the door.

Chairmen of the card games were Dr. Virginia Tyler, Mrs. Frances Stephan, Mrs. Mary Lemberger, Mrs. Edith Ennis and Mrs. Addie Parks.

A delicious buffet supper was served by Mrs. Helen Parrish, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. Kay Doss. Mrs. Helen Dill checked attendance for Soroptimist members.

Prizes were handled by Mrs. Margaret Neff and Mrs. Clara Conner. Miss Lela Mae Smith also sold delicious home made candy.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Dee Dietro and Bert Watts.

PTA Council Completes Picnic Plans

A committee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Phillips to complete plans for the picnic supper to be held on Thursday, September 20, from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m., preceding the first PTA meeting of the 186 St. school.

It was decided that the PTA would serve coffee and punch and each family was to bring their own picnic dinner. Tables will be set up with name tags of the different grades and teachers' names, to enable parents to become acquainted with their own children's teachers.

The whole family is urged to attend, and school age children are invited to the meeting to be held in the auditorium. Nursery care will be provided for the smaller children.

"Working Together for Family Fun" will be the theme of the PTA meeting, and a distinguished speaker, J. Lyman Goldsmith from the Los Angeles Board of Education, will speak and give a demonstration on arts, crafts, and hobbies.

Community singing will be under the able leadership of Mr. Earl Sumpier. An added attraction will be the naming of a Mr. and Mrs. PTA for the evening.

Junior Woman's Club Slates Hawaiian Luau Saturday Nite

Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's club and their guests will come in native garb for their Hawaiian Luau, scheduled for Saturday, September 22, 8 p.m., at the Palms, 1952 Carson st.

Sarongs, beachcombers and hula skirts will be worn. The Gene Ware combo will play for the entertainment and dancing afterwards. There will be community singing during the serving of the food.

Jewish Group Plans Social Saturday Nite

In order to reach many potential members residing in the Gardena and Torrance areas, the Gardena Valley Jewish center has scheduled a membership social for Saturday evening, September 22 to acquaint newcomers in the community with the center's activities.

The social will be held at the center building, 14725 Gramercy place, Gardena, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Frieda Charney, president of the GVJC Sisterhood may be contacted at DA 4-5358 for information about the social and other center activities.

Other members who will provide information are Mmes. Mildred Halkin, DA 4-6287 and Edith Sorashevsky, DA 9-8429.

SEAMAN RETURNS

Returning to San Diego Sunday morning from a six-month cruise to Japanese and Australian ports will be George Wilmon, Jr., seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilmon, 1616 224 st., aboard the destroyer USS Halsey Powell with Destroyer Division 171. The Halsey Powell is commanded by Commander G. Brown, 1868 Altamira Pl., San Diego.

Special guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Lee McCoy. Mrs. McCoy is president of the Torrance Woman's Club.

Junior Coordinators: Mmes. D. J. Thomsen, John Melville and A. F. R. Ewalt and their husbands will also be present.

Mrs. Howard Altermatt is the general chairman in charge of the Luau and decorations, assisted by her are Mmes. Robert Wadell, Lee Allen, Leon Clotworthy and Gerry Wood.

The combo will be surrounded by a scene of palms and a native hut.

The centerpiece for the table will be made of pineapple, papaya and TI leaves. Vanta orchids will be flown in from Honolulu.

Background decorations will include a large night scene showing Diamond Head and the island groups in the foreground will be used on one wall.
