Talk Around Tartarville
 By BERTHA ROGAN
 FR. 5-6993

Friday we play our first football game of the season so let's have everybody at this game to display some of Torrance high's school spirit.

I have a correction to make about the dance I mentioned last week. It will not be held at the Civic Auditorium but at the Armory after the football game tomorrow night.

There was a spur of the moment "cocktail party" held at Mardell Claton's house, a week ago Tuesday for some members of the Sophomore class.

Some Tartars present were Kenny Pevic, Diana Cook, Diane Hunter, Gerry Day, Larry Rose, David Hill, Diana Doyle, Timmy Smith, Ronnie Veres, Judy Lacky, Tony Bertolet, Jim Kasterko, Diane Wayt, and of course, Mardell. Everyone agreed they really had a lot of fun.

Freshman elections will be held Friday, October 5, and the last day to put in your application to run for office is Friday, September 28. The only way to have a really terrific class is to get out and run for an office so there will be a good class cabinet.

Mike Bertolet, Steve Smith, Jim Weyant, Ron Lovelady, Ben Beough, and Gary Kirtly went to the new South Lane Bowling Alley and they recommend it highly to all prospective bowlers.

There was a party the other night given by Peggy Sprout. Those who came were Howard Smith, Don Kelley, Gwenn Shafin, Diane De Nevers, Barbara Hester, Ollie Lessin, Ron Lovelady, Dixie Bergin, Jim Smith, John Usab, Shirley Reed and Elmer, Tom Quaggin, Carol Burgue, Harold Holmes, Lorna Hall, Jim Weyant, Steve Smith, Ben Bough, Royce Davis, Herky Cobrea, Bart Rowland, Mike Bertolet. Everyone had a wonderful time playing ping-pong and dancing.
