

Saxon ...

High ... Lights

By BONNIE WILLIAMS

Our traditional Hello and Smiles Week was climaxed last Friday with a talent show held in the area just outside the cafeteria.

Participating in this show were Babs Cagle, Diania Bybee, vocalists, Marilyn Jordan and Nancy Ewing who did their own rendition of the Charleston complete with flapper dresses, Judy Benfanger did one of her popular monologues, and Gray Gance, gave out with "I'll see you in my dreams," an accordion solo. The Saxon Dance Band played "Picnic," "Palladium Party," "No Not Much" and "Blues on Parade" featuring Ken Pervience on drums and Mike Henderson on tenor saxophone. This program was staged twice due to the split lunch periods.

Get Out and Root. Our first football game will be this Friday night against Artesia high at Artesia. This is the first of three practice games that our Varsity will play before starting their league play.

Our team this year will be as successful as we want it to be with our help and spirit behind it. We have gained a reputation for being the school with the best spirit. Let's keep that reputation by going out and supporting our team at both home and away games.

Snoopin' Around

The Girls' Athletic Association is now collecting dues and admitting new members. This program is going to be offered four times a week. An activity bus will be available to those students living in the direction of Seaside and Hollywood Riviera.

Ophelia McClain is engaged to Bill Arnold a marine stationed in Santa Ana.

Loren Jones and Diana Standley have been going together for four months.

Harbor City PTA Plans Carnival

Harbor city school PTA executive board held their meeting as a combined pot luck luncheon at Lomita park, with president, Mrs. Leland Van Buren presiding. The flag salute was led by Mrs. William Giffin, and Mrs. Troy Collum acted as parliamentarian in the absence of Mrs. Charles Hilzer.

The various programs for the coming year were outlined by Mrs. Tom Tower, carrying out the theme "Our Investment in America — Strengthening Communities." Mrs. James Alexander outlined the various ways and means projects also, the first of which will be a school carnival scheduled for September 28.

Southwest Park Group to Discuss Youth's Activities

Resumption of the regular monthly meeting of the Southwest park civic association will be at the Carl Steele School, Tuesday, October 2, at 8:00 p.m.

Reports will be given by the parks committee on the events concerning the park area in Southwest Park and the Youth Activities committee on the teen-age dances held during the summer.

A summary of other activities of the Southwest Park Civic association during the summer will be given by Jack Ekberg, president.

A film, "Torrance, The City of Industrial Opportunity," will be shown after the business meeting.

PTAs Slate Campaign For Membership

October 1-8 was proclaimed PTA membership week in Torrance by Mayor Albert Isen.

PTAs will carry on an all-out drive for membership, planning to top last year's record high of 10,147 including 18 schools.

PTAs accomplishments in one year include the purchase of 168 pairs of shoes for needy children, 793 half-pints of milk, 310 Christmas baskets, and support of the dental health and American Field Service program.

A thermometer in front of the Civic Auditorium will record the progress of the membership drive.
