8 NEW BROWNIES FOR TROOP 566

Brownie investiture ceremonies are planned on Friday, November 9, at the First Methodist church for troop 566.

Eight girls will be invested. They are Cheri Tyler, Cynthia Starkey, Jerye Grubb, Carolyn Jensen, Kay Roberts, Shirley Myers, Karen Johnson, and Karen Boulton.

On Tuesday, October 30, the girls had a Halloween party at the home of Jerye Grubb, 1625 Elm. Terry Van Dyke won the prize for the evening for collecting the most witch badges. Mrs. Carl Wahl and Mrs. Virginia Van Dyke are troop leaders.

DUCKS

California hunters bagged 3,289,000 ducks during the 1955 season, reports the National Automobile club. This bag was down 5.9 per cent from 1954, largely because of floods in the Sacramento valley.

Local Farmer Honored at Bureau Meet

Ken Christofferson, Torrance poultry rancher, received double honors at the 39th annual meeting of the Los Angeles County Farm bureau last week at the San Marino Women's club.

Christofferson was one of two Farm Bureau members who won gold pins for soliciting more than 25 new members during the past year. Total membership is now approximately 3800.

The perpetual trophy, presented each year to the outstanding committee chairman, was also awarded to Ken for his work in heading the 1956 Ranch Merit award program. Christofferson received his trophy from Walter Zentler, president of the local Farm Bureau.

Harbor City-Lomita Keeps Chest Trophy

Although two harbor area communities this week reached the 100 per cent goal for total volunteer organization in the current Community Chest appeal, Harbor City-Lomita, which set the pace, maintained its first place position and will retain the Ira D. Kaye perpetual trophy, according to Arthur O. Otsea, harbor area campaign chairman.

The trophy, donated by Ira D. Kaye, San Pedro businessman, and awarded annually to the first city reaching the 100 per cent goal for Chest volunteer workers, was formally presented to James Munson, Harbor City-Lomita city chairman. Runners-up in the race for first place were Palos Verdes and Rolling Hills.

Four harbor city communities are still seeking volunteer workers for the residential campaign, scheduled to get underway today.

San Pedro roster is 61.08 per cent complete; Wilmington, 60.67 per cent; Torrance, 57.46 per cent, and Gardena, 55.55 per cent.

Volunteers interested in working on the residential campaign to aid the harbor area meet its $85,346 goal in the Los Angeles Area are asked to call campaign headquarters, TE. 3-2458.

volleyball—Boys' gym.

Plans are currently underway for the second annual teen age girls' volleyball tournament which will be held November 7 and 14 in the Girls' gym. Entry banks are available at the Torrance Recreation department, 3031 Torrance Blvd.

Park Program

Action at WALTERIA, Torrance.

El Retiro, and McMaster Parks has been highlighted by the opening games of the Flag Football league.

El Retiro park has also announced the formation of a square dance class on Saturdays. Interested persons may contact director Frank Demyan or Mary Lou Sass at El Retiro park, Mondays through Saturdays.

McMaster park has been the location of an afternoon folk dance class every Tuesday, and will also be the site of a square dance class on Friday evenings between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. for all teen agers.

The adult art class on Tuesday nights at McMaster has made rapid progress in the last few weeks. New members are always welcome.
