New Restaurant Donates Proceeds To City Of Hope

The entire first day's grand opening proceeds (9 a.m.-3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15) of Huff's restaurant, corner Torrance blvd. and Arlington, will be donated to the City of Hope in Duarte. So stated Rick Jordan, Robert Mason and Philip Kay, co-owners of the new restaurant. City of Hope representatives will be on hand to share in the celebration.

The restaurant's grand opening will be celebrated this Friday and Saturday. Huff's will be open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Jordan, Mason and Kay have a total of 42 years of restaurant experience between them.

The $120,000 building with a 67 capacity, is ultra-modern, with bright, streamlined interior decorating and gleaming stainless steel fixtures.

A giant punch bowl fountain will literally flow freely for all who come to see the restaurant during its grand opening. Free bubble gum will be given away to children.

Huff's features Eastern choice meats as well as a petite filet, popular specialty of the house. The restaurant grinds its own meats. It is also known for its blueberry pancakes, seafood and ham and pork specialties.

Huff's also has a restaurant located in Hollywood.

Employees Help Meet Area Quota

Plant employees of Pacific Smelting company in Torrance are among the first to complete their first plant employee solicitation for the current Community Chest campaign to help meet the Harbor area quota of $17,070.

Spear-headed by William Johnson, plant superintendent, the employees have answered this campaign solicitation with "A Bigger Yes to Community Chest."

Approximately 350 firms in harbor area are participating in the employee campaign.

Quota for firm employees in Torrance area is $4915; Gardena, $5529; San Pedro, $3177; Wilmington, $3050, and Palos Verdes, $399.

Students See Opera In LA AREA CHEST CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY

More than 8000 students from Los Angeles city junior and senior high schools attended two special performances of the San Francisco Opera company's presentation of Puccini's "Madama Butterfly," it was announced by Associate Superintendent Robert E. Kelly, secondary education chief for the city system.

ALL THAT one gains by falsehood is, not to be believed when he speaks the truth.—Aristotle.

Current solicitations to the Community Chest appeal in harbor area has reached 27.11 per cent, or $23,144.09 of its overall goal of $85,346. Arthur O. Osea, harbor area campaign chairman, said today.

Volunteer workers are busily engaged in soliciting gifts in commerce and industry, advance gifts, business and residential divisions to help meet the Los Angeles Area Community Chest campaign goal of 10 million for its 168 Red Feather health, welfare and service agencies.

First Place
 Harbor City-Lomita with a quota of $2,411 has reached 44.13 per cent of its goal.

San Pedro, in second place, has raised $8812.30 or 42.27 per cent of its goal of $20,847.

In third place Wilmington has 36.43 per cent or $5270 of its goal of $14,463; Gardena, 13.79 percent or $2157 of its $15,632 goal, and Palos Verdes, 6.28 per cent or $52.50 of its $8,375 goal.

Percentage and gift totals for Rolling Hills is pending outcome of the volunteer residential campaign.

Luncheon Meeting
 A central report meeting for campaign progress in the Associated Cities is scheduled at noon, November 20, in the Embassy room of the Ambassador hotel, Los Angeles.

The luncheon meeting is open to all volunteers. Several large firms are partially sponsoring the event.

Additional information may be obtained by calling Harbor Area Community Chest Campaign headquarters, TE. 2-0510.

Local Doctors Coordinate Vision Contest

Doctors Allen Fyeatt and Joseph Bay, members of the Los Angeles County Optometric association, were named coordinators for Torrance and North Torrance high school respectively in the fifth annual poster and essay contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Vision Conservation Institute, Inc., and Dr. Fyeatt will work with Torrance High principal W. B. Wagner, Jr.

"Safer Driving Through Better Vision, Help Save Lives" is the theme of the 1957 campaign which is co-sponsored by the National Safety council.

The contest is open to all public, private, and parochial high schools in this area and throughout California. Information may be obtained and entries submitted to English or art instructors or to VCI headquarters at the Bel Air hotel, Los Angeles.

Contest closes December 7. Local prizes will be awarded in each county.

"THANK YOU, TORRANCE"

Yes, thank you—all you good people—for the tremendous vote you gave me in the Nov. 6 general election.

And a million thanks to those of you who worked actively in my campaign; and to the district newspapers for their fair treatment.

And to my Republican opponent, Tom Brewer, my best good wishes.

(Signed) VINCENT THOMAS, Assemblyman, 68th Dist.
