Court St. Catherine Holds Christmas Party at Hall

Gifts were exchanged and food for Christmas baskets for the needy donated, when members of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, met recently at the Nativity parish hall for a Christmas party.

A fireplace complete with stockings was readied for Saint Nicholas created by the ingenious hostesses. A beautiful Nativity scene portrayed the true meaning of Christmas. Holly and lighted candles decorated the tables where refreshments were served, and metallic medallions were effectively used about the hall.

Mrs. Robert O'Brien and Mrs. Dennis Flacy were co-chairmen of the hostess committee, and were assisted by Mmes. Michael Donish, Joseph Lucas, Frank H. Forester, Edward Heatherman, and Bernard Connaughton, and Misses Katherine and Felicitas Shaughnessy.

During the short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Joseph Terkmany, Mrs. Robert Wilson was elected historian to serve the remainder of the court year. Donations for the Cardinal's Christmas party for the needy, Folsom prison (subscriptions to the Catholic Digest) and St. Vincent de Paul society were voted.

Mrs. Donald Cowden discussed the court's program and Mrs. Gerald Revell discussed the ways and means projects, which included Christmas candles and angels for which orders were taken. Mrs. Michael Olson told of share-the-faith activities, and Mrs. Frank Weston reported on social welfare activities including a Thanksgiving party for the ward in Harbor General hospital. Mrs. William Healy announced study club plans for January. Mrs. Marco Vuacan, of Los Angeles, newly appointed district deputy, was a guest.

Next meeting of the court will be a business session on Monday, January 14.

GIRL SCOUT, BROWNIE PARADE AND SONG FEST SCHEDULED SATURDAY

For the fourth consecutive year, Girl Scouts and Brownies from Central Torrance and visitors from the Harbor district will parade and sing Christmas carols in El Prado park, Saturday, December 22.

Approximately 200 girls are expected to take part in the activities which begin at 2 p.m. with a sidewalk parade north on El Prado to Sartori, across the street and back to El Prado Park for a song fest.

The idea for the procession stems from the Mexican Posado. Children march through the streets at Christmas time, knocking on the doors where altars are in the homes for worship. Girl Scout troop 1299, under the leadership of Mrs. Lois Krauszer, will lead a Spanish song during the procession.

Special Songs
 Mrs. Carl Osterlind will direct the singing in the park which will last until 3 p.m.

Special numbers have been prepared by some of the groups Troop 610 with its leader Mrs. Billy Garrison will sing, "O Holy Night." Girl Scout troops 474 and 566 have combined to sing the German carol, "O Christmas Tree." Leaders are Mrs. Delores Marleau and Mrs. Ruth Wahl, respectively. Troop 1399, will also sing a special carol, and Brownie troop 1576, under the leadership of Mrs. William Malin is preparing to sing "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer."

Ingathering
 At this time the troops will also participate in the Juliette Lowe Ingathering for World Friendship fund. Each troop will place its contribution in a Christmas chimney for charity. All donations have been collected during the year with special projects for that purpose.

"The number of troops participating is never known until they arrive. In this way none of the girls are obligated and the element of surprise adds to the enjoyment of the girls who do attend," Mrs. Osterlind said.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS MEET

The Okiclyapi Winuke Camp Fire girls climaxed their first six months with a Christmas social Wednesday evening, December 12, at the home of Mrs. Delmer Kern, 18211 Prairie, in Torrance.

Since the group's organization on June 14 the girls have accomplished a great deal under the leadership of Guardians, Mrs. Kern, and Mrs. Dean White, Hermosa Beach.

The planning and carrying-out of this social meeting, to which parents and sponsors were invited, enabled the girls to complete the eighth requirement of the nine requirements for Trail Seeker's rank.

They made the invitations, programs, name tags, favors, and decorations; they shopped for ingredients, made the refreshments, served, and washed the dishes afterwards; they presented the program and participated in the entertainment. Later, the angel doll mobile and ming tree centerpiece were presented to the children's ward of the Harbor General hospital.

The Okiclyapi Winuke Camp Fire group welcomes two new members, Cheryl Smith and Dawna Riggs, bringing the total to thirteen members.

Y MEN'S CLUB

Temporary officers for the Torrance Y's Men's club elected at their first organizational meeting were Paul L. Burman, president and Dick Brown, secretary.

This club is primarily a Service Club with additional features of athletics and good times. The Y's Men's motto is "To Acknowledge the Duty that Accompanies Every Right."
