Miss Warren Will Marry Donald Berry

Mr. and Mrs. Benny R. Warren, 4722 Vanderhill rd., announced the engagement of their daughter, Wanda Jean, to Rev. Donald L. Berry of New Haven, Conn., formerly of Goshen, Ind.

The news was revealed at a small party of friends at Yale Divinity school in New Haven where the couple are currently studying. Miss Warren attended Long Beach public schools and Long Beach State college. She received her BA degree at Boston University in 1954, and will receive the Bachelor of Divinity degree in June at Yale.

Berry, son of Mrs. Florence Berry and the late William T. Berry, Goshen, Indiana, graduated from Goshen College and the Chicago Theological Seminary. He received his masters degree in 1954 from Yale and is a candidate for the Doctorate in Philosophy.

He has served in Congregational Pastors in Osceola and Marion, Ind., and is now assistant pastor of the First Congregational church in Norwalk, Conn.

They will be married June 1 at the Church of the Redeemer, New Haven, Conn.

Barbara Lee Thompson Marries

Barbara Thompson Weds Howard Edward Brady

In an impressive evening ceremony at the First Christian church, Thursday, March 7, Miss Barbara Lee Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thompson, 917 Kornblum, became Mrs. Howard Edward Brady.

She wore a ballerina-length wedding gown of powder blue taffeta and lace net with a high necked bodice and three-quarter length sleeves. A short veil fell from a petite matching blue hat. She carried white carnations and a white orchid on a white Bible.

Maid of honor Sharon Thompson, and Lita Brady, bridesmaid, wore yellow taffeta ballerina-length dresses with wide net sashes. They carried bouquets of white carnations. Basil Brady was best man

LOCAL WOMEN, CLUBS INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN FIRST ANNUAL EVENT

For the first time in the history of Torrance, "Women of the Year" awards will be made by the Torrance Press to honor and recognize outstanding leaders in five categories—PTA, Social and Philanthropic, Civic and Cultural, and Church activities.

Any woman living within the circulation area of the Torrance Press or contributing to that area in any way, will be eligible. Winners will be judged for outstanding work in their particular field, by prominent women leaders in the community whose identity will remain undisclosed.

Not only will clubs and organizations be eligible to submit a candidate, but individuals, not affiliated with any group, may enter providing their contributions fall into one of these categories. Winners will not be restricted to contributions made during the past year, but outstanding work at any time will be considered. Sponsoring clubs will necessarily be limited to one entry.

If there are any questions regarding the divisions, contact the Society Editor of the Torrance Press at FA. 8-2345.

Purim Bazaar To Feature Many Booths

Mrs. Sam Katz, chairman, invites everyone to Temple Menorah Sisterhood's annual Purim Bazaar Sunday, March 17, 1 p.m. at 112 1/2 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach.

Jack Sherman, plant booth; George Lewison, cake booth; Rube Drabin, children's booth; Ben Kogan, men and women's wear; Leonard Fink, household goods; Irving Zlotkin, jewelry and novelties booth. There will be many other miscellaneous items and groceries for sale.

Menorah Federation of Temple Youth will be in charge of the games and booths for children. A full spaghetti dinner, hot dogs and drinks will be served all day.

Assisting Mrs. Katz on her committee are Mmes. Mark Bennett, food; Bernard Yeskin, co-chairman of bazaar; Edward Sokolski, publicity; Ira Lichtig, merchandise coordinator.

Many prizes are being awarded, including two trips to Las Vegas.

YWCA CAMP REGISTRATION STARTS FRIDAY

With the first signs of spring the YWCA folders announcing the summer camping season are being mailed to teenage members.

The official opening of the registration period will be March 15. As last year girls from this area were turned away due to late registration, those intending to attend Camp Tahquitz Meadows at any time during the camping season (July 2-August 27) are urged to make reservations.

on the basis of a letter of recommendation mailed or brought to the Torrance Press office not later than May 15. It should be typewritten detailed account, describing the individual, her contributions, and reasons for consideration as 'Outstanding Woman of the Year' in a particular field. It may be submitted at any time as of today.

On May 23 individual pictures and stories will appear in the Press describing the winners and reasons for selection in the five fields. All winners will be guests of the Torrance Press at an invitational luncheon on that day at which time trophies will be awarded.
