South Torrance Democratic Club Elects Officers

The newly organized South Torrance Democratic club met at the Wayfarers Restaurant, Sunday, March 3.

Temporary officers elected to serve until organization is completed were: J. J. Barton, president; J. A. Beasley, vice president; R. E. Sagrillo, secretary; and E. L. Schoonover, treasurer. The Board of Directors named were T. Abrams, J. R. Alford, J. J. Flynn, G. E. Olding, D. D. Tanner, Mrs. E. Z. Thill, and Mrs. Herma Tillim.

Thomas Carvey, guest speaker, spoke to the group about the aims and policies of the Democratic party and their associated clubs.

A resolution was passed by the newly formed organization that one of their objectives would be to endorse a six-man City Council instead of the present five-man board and a Mayor at large, to be elected by the vote of the people. They also went on record as favoring the placing of this very important issue on the ballot at the earliest possible time. Meetings of this organization were tentatively set for the first Sunday morning of each month.

Civic Group Installs Officers

The Southwest Park Civic Assn., met at Club Alondra March 2 to install officers for the coming year. The installation preceded a banquet dinner and dancing.

Paul Mitchell was installed as vice-president; Mrs. Leo Fischer, secretary; and William Freeman, treasurer. Board members will be Paul Foster, C. B. Morrison, Mrs. Wesley Christian, and Jack Ekberg.

Mrs. Christian, Mrs. Kinane, and Mrs. Fischer were presented with corsages to mark the occasion of their installation.

Mrs. Wesley Christian, chairman of the Adult Activities committee, planned and executed the installation. On her committee were Paul Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weibel, Mrs. Robert Mason, and Mrs. Robert Brigham.
