PILOT CLUB OFFICERS INSTALLED AT DINNER

Mrs. Gerald Cork was installed president of the Pilot Club for the coming year at a dinner-installation Friday, April 26.

Ruth Cunningham of the San Gabriel Valley Pilot club was the installing officer. Others installed in an impressive candlelight ceremony were Mrs. Clara Dougherty, first vice-president; Miss Mae Sleep, second vice-president; and Mrs. John Whittington, recording secretary; Mary Young, corresponding secretary; C. B. Mitchell, treasurer; and directors Joe De Jaiffre, J. K. Burchfield, Jim Krueger, Herma Tillum and Marie Ware.

Mrs. DeJaiffre, outgoing president, introduced Captain Douglas J. Horlander, commander of Co. 1 (Bridge) 132nd Armored Engineering battalion, Torrance National guard. He spoke on the subject, "Women's Service Clubs."

Defined, he said that service clubs were "organizations dedicated to civic betterment," and that they are a great asset to Torrance.

"The number of members in an organization is not necessarily the determining factor whether or not the projects undertaken will be successful: quality and interest are the important factors," Horlander stressed.

He also discussed the four points of the make-up of a service club—Membership, retention, programs, and projects with particular emphasis on the last item.

"The larger the project, the better the plan must be. A good project must create interest immediately," He stated that there is no real need for 4 or 5 projects during the year when one large, well-organized project will stimulate the necessary interest and enthusiasm.
