the goal has been exceeded, the YMCA still has need for extra funds for office help with the expanded staff, for equipment to operate the larger camp program, and for camperships to enable unfortunate boys to attend YMCA Camp.

Smith gave special praise to all of the campaigners and to Sam Levy, the 1957 YMCA campaign chairman for reaching the goal, and doing so with a campaign cost of less than 3 per cent.

In addition, the local YMCA Board paid off $4400 of an accumulated deficit of $9000 through special money-raising
