

SHHH! DO NOT DISTURB!

"I guess I just fell asleep," said Stacy Stevens, 23, of 2122 Kent Ave., Torrance, as he surveyed the damage.
He was driving along Torrance Blvd. near Fonthill Ave. when his car uprooted a marble lamp standard and flipped over.
Stevens, who was not serious.

NOTHING SO cements and holds together all the parts of society as faith or credit, which can never be kept up unless men are under some force or necessity of honesty paying what they owe to one another. Cicero.

Injured, doesn't recall having any dreams during his short nap.

KING AND QUEEN

Waters Blended

Waters flown in from the South Pacific are blended in a ceremony to reunite Polynesia here on the mainland. Pouring waters (l-r) are, kneeling, Manua Fages, Tahiti; Telu Mansfield, Hawaii; and Moana Fai Fai, Samoa. Dignitaries from South Bay Cities will gather Sunday at an authentic pre-opening dedication ceremony of The Polynesian restaurant in Torrance on the Pacific Coast Highway.
