Adult Classes Will Begin on September 16

Free classes for adults will start the week of September 16, Victor Kilburn, principal of the Torrance Evening High School, announced. Enrollment will take place with teachers in the classrooms at the time and day for which classes are scheduled. A 25-cent incidental expense fee for the school year is payable on registering.

Day and evening classes for adults offered by Torrance Unified school district include requirements for a high school diploma, business training, home economics, arts, crafts and shop classes.

Students wishing high school credit, who have not previously completed registration forms, should contact the Adult Education office prior to enrolling in classes. This office will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. during

DON'T BE A STATISTIC!

Most fatal traffic accidents in California involve only one vehicle . . . so don't blame the other fellow, J. T. Blalock, president, Greater Los Angeles Safety Council, said today as he urged motorists to drive with caution over the Labor Day week-end.

Blalock said that in California last year, 56 per cent of the fatal traffic accidents involved only one driver.
