

186th PTA To Meet On Friday

The first meeting of the executive board of the 186th St.

School PTA will be held at the home of the school principal, Miss Ruth Engdahl, on Friday, August 30, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting had originally been scheduled for August 15, but was changed because of the number of members on vacation at that time. The program for the coming year will be presented by Mrs. W. S. Stewart for the board's approval and ratification. Also on the agenda will be the planning and discussion of the ways and means for the ensuing year. Since this will be the first meeting that Mrs. James Ellis, president, has presided over,

Unmatched beauty in flower, delicious fruit, and light and useful shade are qualities which make the apple tree a valuable addition to a garden, according to the California Association of Nurserymen. she is anxious for as many of the board members as possible to be present.

Married In St. James Church

Mary Elizabeth Larkins became the bride of Dean Douglas Domonoske, in St. James Catholic church, on August 24 at 10 a.m. After a honeymoon trip to Las Vegas and Grand Canyon the couple plan to reside in Redondo Beach.—Seaman Photo.

Larkins-Domonoske Recite Vows in St. James Church

St. James Catholic church was decorated with white satin bows and baskets of flowers when Mary Elizabeth Larkins came down the aisle on the arm of her father, to become the bride of Dean Douglas Domonoske, on August 24 at 10 a.m. Father John McKenna read the marriage vows. Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Larkins, 803 S. Juanita st., Redondo Beach, wore a chapel length gown with a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt was made of tulle, net and taffeta with appliques of lace. The finger tip illusion veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls, and her bouquet was a cascade of white butterfly orchids.

Marion Ah Ping, of Honolulu, was maid of honor, and Shirley Nolte, Bonnie and Betty Domonoske were the bridesmaids. All were wearing frocks of pale pink nylon with white polka dots.

Michael Pavone was the ring bearer and Bill Young was best man. Robert Bussey, Duke Bloxley and H. Pullen seated the guests.

Baby Shower Given For Mrs. Bay

Mrs. Margaret Bay was the guest of honor at a stork shower last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Frances Northcutt, 2600 Cabrillo ave. Mrs. Edna Perkins was co-hostess.

The affair was held in the patio, which was decorated with colorful lanterns, and the beautifully appointed table carried out the stork shower motif.

Mrs. Marjorie Willacy, sister of the guest of honor, played the organ and piano for the guests.

Attending the shower were: Mmes. T. Willson, Vida Bratton, Evelyn Roberson, Sylvia Fisher, Ada Simpson, Marjorie Olmstead, Alice Hudson, Marie Johnson, Arthur Fink, Mary Murray, Dorothy Mahoney, Maxine Cooper, Eve Wilson, Lorene Crow, Margaret Baldwin, Mamie Anderson, Monta Mann, Julie Hammond, Murene Hoelting, Sue Malloy, Jean Northcutt, and Dorothy Backland.

The door prizes were won by Marjorie Willacy and Lorene Crow.

Rehearsals Begin for 'Happy Time'

Chosen to play the role of Maman in Accent: Theater's next production, "The Happy Time" is Jo Harestad, talented local actress, whose fine performance in "Night of January 16th" is well remembered by the theater-goers who saw Accent's first production three years ago.

She has a natural flair for dialects and uses a Scottish accent throughout this play which portrays a Scottish mother in a French-Canadian family.

Appearing with Jo is her husband Paul, cast in the role of Grandpere. He served as president of the group last year. Others in the cast are: Richard French as the son, Bibie; and Karby Gangel as the neighbor girl, Sally. The role of Papa is

Rummage Sale

Delnora Camp 10137, Royal Neighbors of America, will hold a rummage sale on August 30, 31, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., in the old city hall building, at 1511 Cravens, in Torrance. The public is invited.

to be played by Ed Siani, Uncle Desmond by Ed Gangel, Uncle Louis is Joe Cunningham, and Nadine Nickel is playing the role of Aunt Felice.

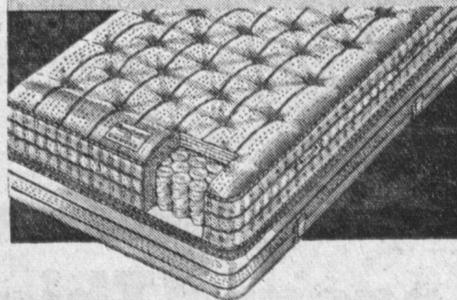

The French maid, Mignonette, is Barbara Whitley. Ed Cook, better known as Stosh in "Stalag 17," will be Doctor Gagnon, and Lee Oberholzer who just successfully completed his role as the young playwright in "Light Up The Sky" is to be Alfred.

Tickets will soon be available for "The Happy Time" so that many local residents will have the opportunity of a "Happy Time" with this community group.
