

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES CLUBS FEATURES SECTION

GLADYS MAXWELL, Women's Editor

FASHION SHOW selections are being made by Fran Dale and Aileen Moore, owner of Moore's Dress Shop, in preparation for the showing to be presented by the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club on November 20.

BPW'S SLATE FASHION SHOW, DINNER NOV. 20

'Smart Clothes for the Smart Business Woman', could well be the theme of the Business and Professional Women's clubs' forthcoming fashion show, which will be held at the Alondra club, 16411 Prairie ave., November 20, at 7 p.m.

The BPW's are inviting all Torrance women's organizations to join them for this gala affair which will include dinner as well as a look at the parade of fall and winter clothes being featured.

Aileen Moore, owner of Moore's Dress Shop, and member of the Business and Professional Women's club, will provide the clothes for this show and costumes for daytime and sportswear, as well as afternoon and evening will be shown.

Any woman, belonging to a local woman's organization of Torrance, wishing to attend may contact Betty Massie, president, for information about tickets.

DEMOLAY MOTHERS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Officers of the Lomita Demolay Mothers were installed recently in a candlelight ceremony at the home of Mrs. Lois Chapman, 26315 Athena ave., Harbor City.

The new officers for the next six months are: Gladys Gonzalez, president; Lucretia Davis, first vice president; Bertha Westphal, second vice president; Jean Markley, recording secretary; Carol Nothorn, treasurer; Hazel Allan, corresponding secretary; and Ethel Chosen, Chaplain.

Each officer and new member was presented with a corsage and the outgoing president Fern Jenkin, presented the president elect with a Mothers Circle presidents pin, as well as the gavel.

Those attending were: Lois Hentila, Ann Myerscough, Louise Griffith, Carol Saracco, Corrine Anderson, Eileen Hawks, Daisy Agnew, Helmi Chudy, Hazel Allan Bertha Westphal, Jewel Rutz, Jo

Boderman, Ede Trevethan, Rae Potts, Mildred French, Jean Markley, Esther Anderson, Pollyanna Verbeek, Muriel Gasser, Ethel Chosen, Zola Thompson, Lucretia Davis, Carol Nothorn, Gladys Gonzales, Fern Jenkin, Lee Shaver, Lillian Eggleston, Lois Chapman, and Lillian Rohar.

Magician to Speak Here

Ex-Gambler, card shark and magician Paul Ebling, of national fame will appear at the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, southwest Torrance.

According to Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor, the converted ex-gambler is to be the special speaker following the Men's Fellowship Dinner at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday November 12.

All male members and male friends of the church are invited to hear this outstanding speaker. Dinner reservations may be made by calling the church office FR-5-3433.

Arts, Crafts Club Meets

The Arts & Crafts club met at the home of Hazel Fossom on Friday evening, with Cora Bohrer as co-hostess.

Seventeen member and three guests attended. The business meeting was conducted by Vivian Cook, president, and plans were made for the new year books. Various hand work projects were worked on during the evening and plans made for a group project for the next meeting which will be held at the home of Bettina Miller, with Florence Childs as co-hostess.

The Halloween theme was carried out in the decorations and refreshments were served to Mabel Banks, Melvin Beckwith, Helen Carpenter, Florence Childs, Vivian Cook, Leila Evely, Ruth Hardin, Mae Jones, Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Emily Middleton, Bettina Miller, Ethyl Peverly, Fran Snodgrass, Hazel Ward and the following guests, Frances Peverley, Bette Thomas and daughter Lori.

DECORATION SUGGESTIONS

With holiday festivities just around the corner, the Harbor City PTA will have a decorative demonstration as the special feature of the association meeting which will be held in the school auditorium on Tuesday, November 12, at 1 p.m.

Mrs. C. L. Wilson, Tenth District arts and crafts and poster chairman, will be special guest to provide the group with many helpful and unusual suggestions for a more beautiful holiday season.

The lower grades will present several musical selections and sixth grade room mothers will be hostesses for the day and refreshments will be served.

Garden Club Studies Flower Arranging

Learning how to make dried arrangements for fall decorations was the project for the Las Colinas Garden club when it met recently at the home of Mrs. Otto Ledford. Mrs. V. E. Benstead, member of the Torrance Garden club was the speaker.

The newly formed club meets every first and third Monday afternoon of the month, at the home of various members, to exchange information on flower arranging and horticulture.

Also attending the meeting were 25 members of the Palos Verdes Riviera section who represent the new club which is a chapter of the National Garden club.

New officers who were installed at a recent meeting were Mmes. Donald Hoffman, president, Lee Hudson, first vice-president, Francis Kuhn, second vice-president, Matthew McIntyre, recording secretary, William E. Pettipiece, corresponding secretary, and William Doty, treasurer.

Mrs. R. O. Young was the installing officer.

GARDENA FIRST DIVISION TO 'GO OVER THE TOP'

Collecting $755.74 and thus exceeding a quota of $727, a Gardena Community Chest Residential Division headed by Mrs. Anthony Greco, 733 W. 146th st., after two hours of solicitation on Monday, November 4, was the first division in the entire Los Angeles Chest Area to go "over the top."

Four of the seven sections in the division reported. These were sections under the direction of the Amestoy school PTA.

Marina District Council Slated for November 19

A resolution to pledge itself and its membership to "full participation" in the Clean Community Crusade of Los Angeles was introduced at a recent executive board meeting of Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's clubs, in session at the Lawndale Women's club.

Mrs. George E. Hutchins of the Woman's club of Hermosa Beach, district resolutions chairman, introduced the motion, which was unanimously voted by the more than 60 representatives of women's clubs from Pacific Palisades north to Torrance, south.

Dr. Mabel Kinney of Los Angeles, district legislation chairman, brought news of latest legislation at state and national levels. Of special interest to the group was the passage of a poultry inspection law, a food control instigated and carried through by federated clubwomen in State and General federations.

Plans were completed for a Marina District Council to be held November 19 at the First Methodist church of Venice, with the Woman's City club of Venice as hostess group. Luncheon reservations for the event may be made with Mrs. Maurice Robertson of El Segundo.

Mrs. E. T. Goetz, district president, presided at the executive session.

Fun and Fund Club Meets

The Torrance Rebekah lodge Fun and Fund Club held a business meeting in the Masonic Hall followed by a pot luck luncheon, on Wednesday.

Reports were given on the recent Bazaar and dinner by the Vice Grand, Mrs. Edna Ferrin. Mrs. Farrin also reported on the recent trip to the Helms Bakery.

Phi Del's Installation Banquet Set

The Phi Del 'Y' Teens of Torrance are having their third semi-annual installation banquet November 16, at 6 p.m. at the YWCA.

The program includes a chicken dinner, installation and entertainment.

Phi Del's, mothers, and friends are invited to attend.

The officers to be installed are president Susan Saari, vice-president; Claudia Canter, secretary; Vi Lucero, treasurer; Joan Marjala, sergeant at arms; Norma Shino, chaplain; Charlotte McCamas, and historian, and Carol Donaher.

Entertains Classmates

Members of the freshman class at Bishop Montgomery high school were entertained on Friday evening at a party at the home of Miss Frances Neece, Kathy Donald, Torrance High school co-hostess.

Guests enjoying refreshments were Sharon Trahan, Margie Tillett, Jack Gordon, Walt Malonek, Tom Otterson, Veronica Murphy, Mike Mott and John O'Conner.

Miss Neece is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Neece 1024 Crenshaw blvd.

Nativity Plans Open House Reception for New Pastor

A parish-wide open house and reception to welcome the new pastor of Nativity Catholic church, Father Joseph McArdle, will be held from 2 until 4 p.m. this afternoon at Nativity Catholic school, 2371 W. Carson st.

Completing final arrangements are the co-chairmen Mrs. Donald Franklin and Mrs. Elles Cook.

All parish organizations are participating in the fete and welcoming addresses will be presented by Patrick McManus, president of Nativity Holy Name society; Mrs. Harry Kald, Nativity Altar society president; Mrs. C. Mata, Saint Joseph Mission church Pueblo Altar society president; Joseph Manzanera, president Pueblo Mens club; and Mrs. Donald Bryant, president of Nativity school Mothers club.

Master of ceremonies William McDonald will also introduce the seventh and eighth choir, who will sing a welcoming song, and these heads of the other parish organizations: Mrs. Donald Cowden, Catholic Daughters of America, Court of Saint Catherine; Mrs. Keiran Brennan, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Mrs. Jay Bailey, Legion of Mary; Dominic McNeil, Saint Vincent de Paul Society; Laurence Sargent, choir director; Carl Gramling, ushers; young Thomas Andreoli, altar boys; Mrs. Leonard Rock, Troop 610 Girl Scouts; and Robert Wertz, Troop 209 Boy Scouts.

Commemorating American National Education Week, students and teachers have prepared displays in all the classrooms of work covered during the school year to date. Parents and friends are invited to meet their new pastor and at the same time to greet the sisters and see the work of the children.

On Thursday, November 7, some 400 children gathered in the school patio to give their own personal greeting to Father McArdle. In behalf of all the children, eighth grade president, David Ohara, presented roses and an address of welcome was delivered by Suzanne Lundeen, vice-president of the class. A song of welcome was then sung by the assembly. Prayer and salute to the flag of our country concluded the program.

WINTER AND SPRING activities including sewing circle meetings, cooked food and rummage sales, barbecue events and afternoon teas have been planned by the newly formed Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Hospital Guild, which now boasts almost 150 members from Bay-Harbor communities. Left to right, discussing activities the Guild leaders are, seated, Mrs. Richard Rozendal, Torrance; Mrs. Edna Thomas, Lomita; Mrs. Elizabeth West, Lomita, Ways and Means chairman; Mrs. Etta Rados, San Pedro, Guild Chairman; and Mrs. Dorothy Lisman, San Pedro. Standing, Mrs. Grace Crawford, San Pedro, membership chairman; Mrs. William Russell, San Pedro, director; Mrs. Opal Benson, Redondo Beach, and Mrs. Margaret Shepard, San Pedro director.

Blueprinters Meet In S.D.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Stephens, 2749 Gramercy ave., are attending the annual convention of the Blueprint & Photocopying Assn. of Southern California, being held this week end at the Hotel Del Coronado, at Coronado.

Stephens has been an active member of the association for the past 10 years and served a term as treasurer.

He is the owner of Quartz Mercury Lamp Rebuilders co.

The Stephens will attend meetings dealing with industry problems and see the installation of association officers along with social activities.

'Mother of the Lodge' Honored By Rebekahs

The birthday of the Torrance Rebekah lodge was celebrated at a recent meeting with the junior past president of the Rebekah assembly, Mrs. Agnes Altmordoff, of Eagle Rock, as honored guest. Mrs. Altmordoff is considered the "mother of the lodge" as she was the instituting officer for the institution of the lodge in October of 1955. Mrs. Ethel Krouse, Santa Monica, was present also.

The district deputy president, Mrs. Edna Valenzuela and her district deputy marshal were present for the official visit of the deputy. All honored guests were escorted to the platform and welcomed by the noble grand, Mrs. Maude Milburn.

Mrs. Patricia Young was the hostess of the evening, assisted by Mmes. Jessie McGuire, Myra Snow, Floella Whitacre and Mary Chiara. The color scheme was pink and turquoise, with emphasis on the golden treasure, the theme of the deputy president for the year. During the serving of the refreshments a musical skit was presented by the "Krazy Beecle's Hillbilly Band."

The next regular meeting will be on November 13, at which time the first nomination of officers for the year 1958 will be held. Mrs. Edna Collison will be the hostess of the evening.

Society Plans Annual Bazaar

"Winter Wonderland," is the theme for this year's annual bazaar, sponsored by the Women's society of the WALTERIA Community Methodist church. Kenneth Peerson and Charles Jackson are chairmen of the event.

Booths will provide novelty and excitement for the entire family and there will be a fish pond and movies for the children.

Hot dogs and coffee will be available throughout the day. Beginning at 5 p.m. a ham dinner will be served, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Dale Cooper.

A variety of desserts will be on sale at the Bake Goods booth, with Mrs. Bert Pemble, chairman.

The bazaar will be held Saturday, November 24, at 10 a.m.-8 p.m.

Report on Assembly of God Church

Statistics released in the 1958 Yearbook of American Churches indicate the Assemblies of God is the 10th ranking denomination in Sunday school enrollment in the United States.

The revised church ranks also placed the denomination eighth in number of ministers, ninth in church, 28th in church membership, seventh in Sunday school workers and teachers, and eighth in number of Sunday schools. The Assemblies of God is the fifth largest missionary denomination in the world and stands first in number of foreign Bible schools.

Included in the national release of statistics was Keystone Assembly of God, 21916 Moneta ave., local congregation of the denomination. According to the Reverend Charlotte Shook, local pastor, the church has a current Sunday school enrollment of 92.

Guild Slates Special Event

The Women's Guild of Seaside Community church, 230th and Ocean ave., will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday, November 12, at 8 p.m., in the church.

International missions will hold the spotlight. Mrs. David Tepas, missionary education chairman, will show the film, "Of These My Brethren."

Hostesses Mrs. Howard Miller and Mrs. Roger Schrieffer, plan refreshments with a foreign flavor, and a foreign doll display.

Pi Phi Holds Costume Ball

Pi Phi, Manhattan Beach chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a Halloween Masquerade ball for sorority members, husbands and guests at the Veterans Memorial auditorium, recently.

Outstanding costumes were worn by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Seaton who came as the absent-minded professor and wife, Mrs. Joe Disparte who came as a roaring 20's flapper girl, Miss Harriette Bass who came as Vampira and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Neely who came as bathing beauties of the early Twenties.

The banquet room was decorated in traditional orange and black, jack-o-lanterns, black cats, skeletons and witches reigning off the occasion.

FABULOUS! Torrance Press Classified Ads do the amazing as well as the every-day. Dial FA 8-2345 to have one "do things" for you.

ENJOY THE SKILLED HANDS OF HAIR SPECIALISTS

CHECK THESE HOLIDAY SPECIALS
 ✓ INDIVIDUAL STYLING with CONTOUR SHAPING to lock curls in place... $3.50
 Contour Shaping alone $2.00

✓ PERMANENT COLOR BATH also Silver Blending $4.95

✓ Our exclusive budget COLD WAVES $4.95 and $5.95

reg. $10 TRIPLE OIL... 6.95
 reg. $15 OIL EMULSION... 7.95
 reg. $20 LANOLIN... 9.95

OPEN DAY & NIGHT No Appointment Ever Needed

1115 SARTORI NEXT TO MODE O'DAY FA. 8-9930

MRS. WOODS Wins A Money Tree

Church Plans Wins $15,000 Money Tree Fund Drive

On November 15, the WALTERIA Community Methodist church is beginning its new building fund drive. Starting with a Kick-off Dinner that evening, the drive will move on to a dedication of all workers on Sunday, November 17; the height of the drive will be the calling campaign, conducted on Sunday, November 17-24. Building drive chairmen are Frank Hunter and Bud Rose.

The purpose of the building fund drive is the construction of a badly needed education unit, the completion of the sanctuary furnishings and the completion of the Social Hall. The goal of the campaign is $60,030, to be pledged over a 36-month period. The Kick-off is November 15, 6:30 p.m., at a parish dinner for all members and friends of the church.

How'd you like to win a money tree? That's exactly what Mrs. W. S. Wood of 1430 North Pointsettia pl., Hollywood did in the fabulous, recently completed contest, conducted nationally by Proctor and Gamble for their liquid Joy dish washing product.

Mrs. Wood was Grand National Winner and actually took home the Dream - Come - True amount of $15,000.00 in the form of a certified check from Proctor and Gamble.

But, that's not all. Mrs. Wood has been a steady customer of Ralph's Grocery Company's Sunset Boulevard Store, for the past six and a half years and since she registered in that store and mentioned it in her entry, Ralph's Grocery Company also presented Mrs. Wood with a $2,500.00 check, in addition. Mrs. Wood, a charming blond woman, says this is the first contest she has ever won, although she loves contests and enters them frequently.

She admits she made "several entries" in the Joy jingle contest and states that both she and her two daughters are ardent Joy enthusiasts.

When asked to what purpose this windfall would be put, Mrs. Wood stated, "It will be a down payment on the home of our dreams."

Mr. Wood, who looked on the ceremonies with fond husbandly pride, stated, "this is what comes from insisting that the wife does the dishes." He then added with a twinkle in his eye, "I'd wash dishes the rest of my life, however, if I could wash them with Joy and win this kind of money!"