

Newsman to Assess World Conditions

CBS News correspondents will be flown to New York from their posts in the various world capitals to take part in "Years of Crisis: 1957," CBS News' ninth annual analysis of world conditions, to be broadcast "live" on Sunday, December 29, at 1 p.m. over the CBS Television Network.

On the program, which last year won the television industry's "Emmy" award for "Best Coverage of Newsworthy Events," the veteran newsmen will appraise the year's social, political and economic changes in the parts of the world to which they are assigned and, collectively, will assess the free world's profits and losses during the past twelve months. Edward R. Murrow will again moderate the discussion.

CBS Newsmen joining Murrow for the world affairs forum include: Eric Sevareid, chief Washington correspondent; Howard K. Smith, whose split assignment during the past year included covering both Washington and London for CBS News; Alexander Kendrick, CBS News correspondent, London; David Schoenbrun, CBS News correspondent, Paris; Winston Burdett, CBS News correspondent, Rome; Ernest Leiser, CBS News correspondent, Bonn; Daniel Schorr, CBS News correspondent, Moscow; and Peter Kalischer, CBS News correspondent, Tokyo.

WORLD ON WHEELS—The cars and highways of the future, as well as the past, will be shown on NBC-TV when Wide World presents "The World on Wheels" Sunday, January 5. The General Motors Firebird II, a gas turbine passenger car, is the first automobile designed to operate on the radar-controlled electronic "Highway of Tomorrow."

Marian Anderson Tour In Asia On TV Screens

The sell-out tour of Marian Anderson, one of the most celebrated living artists, through Korea, the Philippines, Vietnam, Burma, Thailand, Malaya, and India, will be presented to viewers during Christmas week, in "The Lady From Philadelphia," Through Asia with Marian Anderson," on "See It Now," Monday, December 30, at 9 p.m. over the CBS Television Network.

Recognized as one of America's leading ambassadors of goodwill abroad, Miss Anderson has sung to standing-room-only audiences wherever she has gone. Frequently, her concerts are completely sold out well in advance of her arrival and, in Paris last year, the demand for seats created a near riot with wire services reporting that the city's critics were happy to find seats on the stairs.

"The Lady From Philadelphia" will provide viewers with front-row seats as Miss Anderson sings at the Ewha University in Seoul, at theaters and schools in Manila, Rangoon, Bangkok, Bombay, Delhi, Kuala Lumpur and Saigon, and for members of the 14th Infantry Division of the 48th Parallel in Korea.

A woman of great spiritual force, Miss Anderson is also seen discussing religion and citizenship with leaders in these countries and explaining to school-children what her songs mean and what her country stands for.

Miss Anderson has performed before audiences totaling more than 5,000,000 people in countries all over the world and has received highest honors from these countries. A perennial maker of headlines, the great artist made international news several years ago when she became the first member of her race to sing at the Metropolitan Opera.

Patti Page Party

The Patti Page label will record a memorable New Year's musical melange to include performances by the fiery Eartha Kitt; special guests Louis Prima and Keely Smith; one of opera's greatest tenors, Jan Peerce; and 1957's sky-climbing singing sensation, Johnny Mathis, on CBS Television's "The Big Record," on Wednesday, January 1 at 7 p.m.

In tribute to her amazing voice, the great Arturo Toscanini told her, "A voice like yours is heard once in a hundred years."

Gypsy in Dream

Gypsy Rose Lee will star in "The Charmer," an absorbing drama about a glamorous theatrical agent and an opportunistic young actor, to be presented on "The United States Steel Hour," over CBS Television, Wednesday, January 1 at 9 p.m.

Trends in Movie Making To Be Shown on TV

Movie stars — some of the film firmaments brightest — will shine in a new light on CBS Television's "Seven Lively Arts" presentation, "Hollywood Around The World," Sunday, December 29 at 5 p.m. The actors, contrary to their usual bowtapping appearance on television in connection with an upcoming movie, will be shown hard at the business of film-making.

"Hollywood Around The World" will illustrate some of the current trends in the American motion picture industry with footage from "South Pacific," with Mitzi Gaynor and Rossano Brazzi; "Legend of the Lost," with John Wayne and Sophia Loren; "The Bridge on the River Kwai," with William Holden, Alec Guinness and Jack Hawkins; "Bonjour Tristesse," with Deborah Kerr, David Niven and Jean Seberg; and "Paths of Glory" and "The Vikings," both starring Kirk Douglas.

Paris may have its snails, Eiffel Tower and Champagne. London may have its own Tower plus fish and chips. New York its subways and salamis, but Los Angeles has one of the largest entertainment and amusement centers in the world! Let's take a look at just a few of your favorite places right around the corner!

One of the brightest spots (in mood) along Crenshaw is the Camino Room called Del's. If the forthcoming New Year's Eve party is just half as good as the recent lunchtime recesses so many spend there, it's gonna be quite a bash.

Recent headlines reported that Long Beach is slowly sinking—a plight that will never occur in Hermosa Beach as long as the Lighthouse keeps the town jumpy. Howard Rumsey's crew has become a byword with the "cats" from coast to coast. As one hipster remarked, "Man, he's progressive-like, man!" And the hipsters are just as good as the sounds there... paintings by one Rodney Evans Bacon delight all Sputnik watchers!

And for those who want to get away from it all, a trip to Kyoto's Sukiyaki on Western is just as good. Here is a little nook of quiet oriental charm surrounded by lovely lasses in native kimonos serving a wonderful assortment of truly tempting taste treats! By the way, novices get forks... only the old hands bother to struggle with the chopsticks.

Clever is the eye-catching touch adorning Archie's on Crenshaw and 174th. Besides being the popular restaurant and coffee shop it is, the colorful collection of monstrous and minute menus from 'round the world are worth a peek... but only Archie's menu counts there!

In the succeeding weeks "On the Scene" will visit your favorite haunts and byways from the tremendously popular Plush Horse on highway 101 south to the Pasadena Rose Bowl north (for football, or is it baseball now). See you next week.
