Greek Orthodox Youth Organize

A large group of Greek youth met recently for the first time in this area for the purpose of organizing a local chapter of the Greek Orthodox Youth of America. The group is from the congregation of the newly organized South Bay Greek Orthodox Community.

Memberships were taken and officers were elected. Nick Defterios was elected president of the G.O.Y.A. chapter. Other officers were: Artie Constantine, vice-president; Tasia Monzakis, secretary; Lucas Kides, treasurer, and Paul Grutis, sergeant-at-arms. Present at the meeting were representatives of the Long Beach chapter who helped to organize the local chapter. They were Gordon Donlou and Phillip Phillips.

Following the meeting held at Artie Constantine's home, a barbecue party was held at the home of Nick Defterios.

Epsilon Sigma Fashion Show

The Exceptional Children's Foundation, located at 2520 Signal st., San Pedro, has been adopted by Eta Mu, a chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, as its project for the year. All funds accruing from a February rummage sale and a March fashion show will go directly to the Foundation to help with its important work.

The Eta Mu Fashion Show will be held on Thursday, March 27, at 8 p.m., at the Western Cafe, Gardena. Fashions will be shown from the French Boutique dress shop, with hair stylings by Romero's hair stylists.

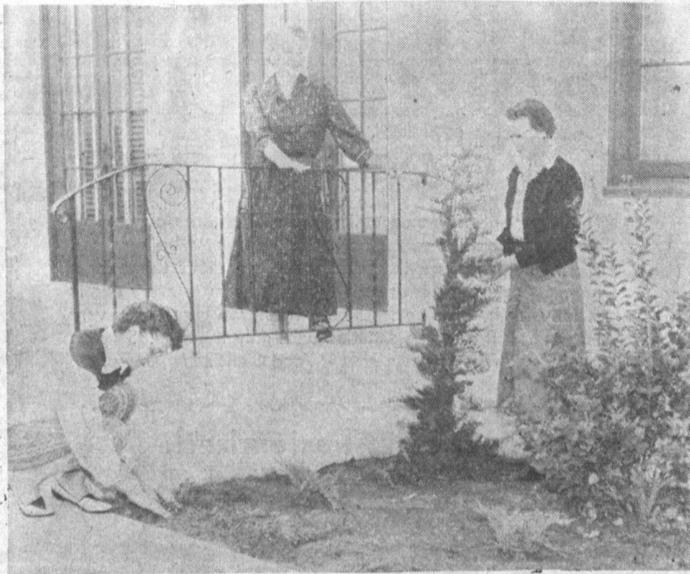

Officers and members of the philanthropic, educational, non-academic sorority pledged in April of 1957 are: Mmes. Benson, Bry, Norman Boy, Carl Crain, recording secretary; Arthur Grig, Concerto Gulliano, Donald Hardy, William Hutchins, vice-president; Donald Lynch, Alvin Tracy, and Jack Wallin, corresponding secretary.

Narbone High School PTA

By MRS. RAY REED

A benefit breakfast will be held at the home of Mrs. Russell Miller, 27813 Comestogo Drive, Rolling Hills, on Wednesday, February 26, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Sponsored by Narbonne High School Parent Teacher Association, funds derived from the breakfast will be used to further the child welfare program carried on by the association. All members and friends are urged to attend.

BEAUTIFICATION—The garden section of the Torrance Woman's Club has entered the Gardens and City Beautiful contest of Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs. Their project is the beautification of the Woman's Club clubhouse grounds. Shown planting shrubbery outside the clubhouse are, left to right, Mrs. John W. Thuss, garden chairman; Mrs. Edmond St. Amand, kneeling, and Mrs. John C. Warnock Jr. The judging will be done by recognized landscape gardeners. The contest will close on April 15. —Press photo

Card Party Date Set by Juniors

A dessert card party is being planned by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club for Wednesday evening, February 26, at 8 p.m. in the Clubhouse.

Mrs. Robert Waddell, chairman, states that bridge, canasta, scrabble, and other games will be played.

Mrs. James K. Lees is in charge of the prizes. Hostesses will be Mrs. George Blahnky, Mrs. Phillip Hoffman Jr., Mrs. Lee E. Allen, and Mrs. James K. Lees.

The party is a ways and means project for the Junior Woman's Club. Members of the Club and other guests have been invited.

Celebrate Anniversary

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Zanner, 22833 Dolores st., North Wilmington, honored them in their home Sunday afternoon, February 16, between 2:30 and 5:30 p.m. The Zanners celebrated their 40th anniversary. Hosts and hostesses for the event were Fred and Frank, their sons, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zanner, son and daughter-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fekete, son-in-law and daughter, and Linda Fekete, their granddaughter.

Garden Wizard Guest Speaker

Torrance Woman's Club, Garden Section will hold their annual Silver Tea and Program on February 26, at 1:00 p.m., at the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia avenue. The public is cordially invited.

Joe Littlefield, one of the Southland's foremost garden authorities, will be guest speaker.

Mr. Littlefield, famous for down-to-earth, understandable garden advice, will discuss "Bareroot, Pruning, and General Gardening."

In his lectures, articles, and television appearances, Joe Littlefield reveals a blend of horticultural knowledge, since interest in the home gardener's problems and refreshing enthusiasm. Happy, homespun bits of garden philosophy enliven his informal talks. "Anyone," he maintains, "can become a good gardener. The fundamentals of good gardening aren't complicated; they're easy to learn. Simply apply them conscientiously and you're almost bound to get good results."
