Class Meeting Place Permanent

The Dynamic Living Class of the Religious Science teachings, have announced that their meetings will be held permanently at the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia ave., each Thursday evening.

Speaker for the May 8 meeting will be Rev. Anita Scofield, minister of the Huntington Park Religious Science church. Her topic, "Now Is the Time," will bring out the fact that the present is the time to have prayer answered. "We do not live in the past of yesterday or the future of tomorrow," she says, "but in the present of today."

Vocalist for the Thursday meeting will be Mrs. Gloria Schummer.

The short prayer service at 7:30 will be followed by the sermon at 8 p.m.

All students of Religious Science or friends are invited to attend.

APPROVING SIGN erected to advertise the carnival to be held May 17, 18 at St. Philomena Catholic Church parish hall, are members of the Men's Council, David DiPrete, Edward M. Hayes (pointing), and Alex Wysocki.

Baptists Call Music Director

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita has extended a call to Edwin Isbell to be their minister of music and education. The Isbells led the music for a recent revival in Lomita. Isbell is a graduate of the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary and is now serving in a similar position in Modesto. He will be in Lomita during the week and is expected to give his answer then.

Pastor Robert A. Wells says "Mr. and Mrs. Isbell will fill a real need in our church program. They are talented musicians and love to work with young people."

A girls' auxiliary coronation service will be held next Sunday at the evening service. Some 15 girls will receive recognition for their forward steps in the girls' auxiliary. The coronation will see the crowning of Miss Glynda Shirley who has reached the rank of queen.

Forces. He entertained in veterans' hospitals through the art of sleight of hand magic.

Evangelist Hunt has turned his pantomimic routine to Gospel use, illustrating and presenting the message in action with "truthful tricks."

The local pastor, Rev. James P. Lowen, states this unique presentation must be seen to be appreciated and invites the public to attend.

Deaf Mutes to Show Magic Tricks

Les and Juliet Hunt, both deaf mutes, will appear at the Torrance Four Square Church, corner of Arlington and Sepulveda blvd., next Sunday night at 7:15.

Although a deaf mute since the age of 2, Les Hunt has been in the entertainment field for over 25 years traveling all over this continent, Canada and South America. For four and a half years he performed in the USO camp shows helping boost the morale of men in the Armed

'Have Love' Is Sermon Topic

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister of the Redondo Beach Church of Religious Science, will present the second in a series of four May lectures, dealing with character qualities, Sunday for Mother's Day. Dr. Barnum's subject title is "Have Love—Will Radiate," and he will describe some ways in which the individual can, through the understanding of what love truly is, be a better person and thus how the entire population of the nations of the world can become more united in peace, and for peace. Dr. Barnum will describe some recent scientific experiments on many kinds of radiation and their results on plants, etc.

Wednesday morning at 10:30 there will be an inspiration hour. This mid-week hour is devoted to lecture, discussion, and healing meditation. Everyone is welcome, and there is a professional sitter for small children.

Board of trustees will meet at 7:30 Wednesday evening.

College accredited class, now in the second unit, meets Thursday evening, 7:30-9:30.
