

College Instructor, Wife Team Up to Write, Illustrate Poetry Book

A colorful volume of poetry and drawings will be published this week by El Camino College instructor Judd Grenier and his wife Nancy.

The book, titled "Prairie Winds and Sea Winds," is the product of an "artistic collaboration" by the husband-wife team. Grenier wrote the poetry and Mrs. Grenier sketched the illustrations.

Pasadena City College printed the book, which contains 25 poems and nine drawings.

The poems were written over a five-year period—from 1951 to 1956—and we have spent the last year polishing, arranging, and choosing the drawings which best fit the mood of the poems," Grenier says.

Locale and setting of the poetry, as the title indicates, includes both the prairie lands of the Midwest and the coastal areas of California, as well as a few European scenes.

Because Grenier is a native of Minnesota, his book will be featured in that state's centennial celebration this year, and will be on display in the capitol along with works of other Minnesota authors.

Grenier is an instructor of journalism at El Camino. He has worked on newspapers in Minnesota and California, and has previously published both poems and short stories.

"Prairie Winds and Sea Winds" is his first complete work, and the first time that the Greniers have collaborated on a book.

Nancy Grenier is a native of Pasadena and a graduate of Occidental College, where her watercolors were exhibited in a public showing last year.

Her paintings have also been displayed at the Los Angeles County Art Association, the county museum.
