Give Baby Shower for School Teacher

Mrs. Jim Olssen, teacher at Del Amo School, who formerly taught at Halldale, was honored Thursday at a luncheon-show in the home of Mrs. John H. Taylor, 1720 238th st. Guests were teacher friends from Halldale.

A pink, blue and white color scheme was carried out and the table centerpiece was an arrangement of four baby bottles, representing the soon-to-be four babies of Mrs. Olssen.

Entertain Friends

Judge and Mrs. Otto Willett entertained at a potluck dinner Saturday in their home, 221 Via Los Altos. Enjoying the social hours were Messrs. and Mrs. William McFadden, Lee Kendall, B. W. Roberts, Gil Derouin and Mrs. Laura Felker.

Kidnap Breakfast

Mrs. John Perkins, first vice-president of Dolores Street PTA, was hostess June 18 at a kidnap breakfast on her patio. C. K. Curry, vice-principal of the school, dropped in to help with the program planning for next terms of PTA activities.

VACATION DAYS are permanent for Halldale School kindergarten teacher Mrs. Lillian Morris. Retiring after 30 years of teaching in California, she was honored recently by the PTA and faculty, who each presented her with luggage. A future of traveling and learning new things is planned by the teacher, who decided to retire while still young enough to thoroughly enjoy freedom from work.

Marriage in San Pedro Unites Betty Hickerson and Andrew Burich

St. Peter Episcopal Church in San Pedro was the setting June 21 for the wedding ceremony of Miss Betty Jo Hickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman O. Hickerson, 25054 Eshelman ave., Lomita, and Andrew A. Burich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Burich of San Pedro. Rev. John Bills officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 2 p. m. before an altar decorated with baskets of white flowers and candelabra.

The bride wore a wedding gown of lace over taffeta with long sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt. Seed pearls and pastel sequin details trimmed the collar and sleeves and the lace cap from which fell her veil.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Jean Du Rant, Carol Sion, Bonnie Devalovich, Sharon Thompson and Virginia Pulido, all school friends of the bride. They wore gowns of aqua chiffon with matching accessories and carried yellow carnations tied with yellow bows.

Little Shirley Mavar was flower girl. She wore floor-length gown of aqua net with matching hat and carried a basket of rose petals.

Nickie Zaninovich carried rings on a white satin pillow. John Devalovich served as best man and ushers were Truman Hickerson Jr., Anthony Vidovich, Louis LaMont, John Burich and George Bogdanich. Junior ushers were Larry and Jimmy Hickerson.

The bride's mother wore beige lace sheath and a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two-tone grey silk gown and white orchid corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at Ft. MacArthur Officers Club in San Pedro, after which the newlyweds left for Malibu. Their new home will be at 924 South Alma st. in San Pedro.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School, summer class of '57, and is employed at the Long Beach Pacific Telephone Company.

The groom was graduated from San Pedro High School in the winter of '54. He is employed in the local fishing industry.

Coming to attend the wedding festivities were Mrs. Leo Hickerson of El Paso, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hickerson of San Francisco, uncle and aunt, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Howard of Westwood.

Halldale Teacher Retires For Fun, Travel and Lessons

Lillian Morris, popular kindergarten teacher at the Halldale School, who is retiring after 30 years of serving the Board of Education, was honored June 12 at a PTA tea for Halldale teachers, clerks, custodians and PTA past presidents. Teachers and PTA members gave her matching luggage and Mrs. Herb Clark, publicity chairman, gave her a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Morris, who lives in Redondo, has taught at Halldale since its opening in '47. Previously she taught at Torrance Elementary School, as the former Lillian Barr. Described by one of the PTA officers as "so versatile, creative and scientific," Mrs. Morris has helped thousands of local children on the road to knowledge. She taught for six years at Wilmington Park School immediately before coming to Torrance Elementary.

"I'm retiring now while I'm still young enough to really enjoy life," said Mrs. Morris. "I want to do a lot of traveling and engage in so many things—probably more than I'll have time for."

Her plan for a summer in Honolulu has been postponed until next year but she will motor north, probably to Seattle. This summer she will learn to play the organ. A tour of Europe is planned for the future.

A centerpiece of an empty birdcage represented Mrs. Morris "flying away" from the group, and teachers joined in singing "If I Had the Wings of an Angel."

Mrs. Morris was the first recipient of a Halldale PTA honorary life membership, presented in '47.

Past Presidents
Past presidents attending the tea were Mmes. E. M. Bernardin, David Goolsby (president-elect of Narbonne PTA) and E. N. Reese.

Teachers and clerks present were Lois Graham, Lillian Morris, Helen Cole, Pauline Shearer, Jeanne Hoyt, Mary Halverson, Alice Ingraham, Sara Vagenas, Olive Boring, Ruth Fischer, Jean Taylor, Geraldine White, Marion Smith, Robert Smith, Jack Cowger, Helen Morton, Margaret Jensen, Jean Ehrlich, Ann Taylor, Wilma Clark, Elizabeth Hampel, Ruth Moeller, Franklin Smouse, and Ruth Adams. Also Amanda Wilhelm, principal, Lucille Fox and Dorothy Gordon.

Hostesses were Mrs. B. E. Kellam, chairman, Mmes. Richard Sabey, Jack Kenyon, Clyde Godard, Frank Bowling Jr., Herbert C. Clark, Douglas Cowdry, W. L. Harvey, F. E. Dye, William L. Wilson and Wm. Brock.

Barbara Nioma Curren Weds in Harbor City Foursquare Church

Harbor City Foursquare Church was chosen for the wedding June 21 of Miss Barbara Nioma Curren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rannels of Compton and Donald Franklin Crouch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crouch of Indiana. Rev. Marion Files officiated at the double ring evening service.

The bride wore a gown of French imported handclipped Chantilly type bow knot lace with long sleeves, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt with chapel train. Her flowers were a white orchid and staphenotis atop her white Bible.

Mrs. Lois Finley, matron of honor, and bridesmaids Bonnie Holloway, Marilyn Luce and Kathy Miller wore gowns alike in ice blue taffeta. They carried arm bouquets of blue carnations. Babs Harrison, flower girl, also wore ice blue.

William Ellis served as best man and ushers were George Curren, John Laffoon, and Ronald Kohler.

The bride's mother wore gray lace over pink taffeta. A church reception was held following the wedding ceremony. The honeymoon trip was to the Grand Canyon.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School, class of '52 and attended Harbor Junior College. She is employed at Harvey Aluminum as a senior teletype operator.

The groom furthered his education at Purdue, where he earned his BS degree in physics. He is employed at Douglas Aircraft as a test engineer in the missiles division.

Mrs. Evelyn Warrnel was wished "bon voyage" for her European trip. Mrs. Bert Carbutt will further her schooling and Miss M. Sorenson will vacation in Canada with her parents, after which she will prepare for teaching in Germany next year.

Miss Marge Corey was initiated into the PTA by giving an amusing speech, "How I Volunteered for the PTA Board."

Members of the Harbor City School faculty were honored guests at an appreciation luncheon given June 20 in the school auditorium. PTA board members were hostesses.

Miss Ruth Raymond who is leaving the school, was presented with candy.

Included with the 22 members of the faculty were the school principal, nurse, custodians and cafeteria management.

Mrs. James Alexander, outgoing president, and Mrs. Michael Travers, incoming president, planned the affair; board members assisting were Mmes. Robert Alexander, James Mason, Mrs. Burton Easley, 3306 El Dorado, was hostess recently at a bride party in her home. Attending were Mmes. Calvin Blakeley, Walt Levy, Edward Grubb, Gerald Eastham, Park Montague, William Patterson, Jack Brooks, Robert Triplitt and Phyllis Klink.
