Santa Monica to Represent West In Junior Tilt

Two high-scoring, unbeaten junior college powerhouses, Santa Monica City College and Northeastern A&M of Miami, Okla., seek the mythical national jaycee crown Saturday when they clash in the 13th annual Jr. Rose Bowl Game in Pasadena's Rose Bowl.
 Kickoff for the intersectional classic is 1:30 and a crowd of 45,000 is expected.

 Santa Monica, coached by former SC and San Francisco 49'er star Jim (Mystic) Powers, won the western berth by whipping through nine regular season games without a loss. The Corsairs averaged nearly 40 points a game with Quarterback Pat Young, Halfback Lloyd Winston and End Dave Washington spearheading pro-type attack.
 Northeastern, coached by bowliwise S. A. (Red) Robertson, is riding the crest of the longest unbeaten streak in jaycee ranks, having gone 19 straight without a setback. The Golden Norsemen were unbeaten both this year
