"Secret Pals" to Be Revealed by Sorority

The Christmas party of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha International Sorority, Gamma Psi Chapter will be held Dec. 16 at the home of Mrs. Richard Beck. "Secret Pals" for this year will be revealed and names for the coming year will be drawn.

Mrs. Charles Groutage, social committee chairman, Miss Nancy Meyer, Mrs. Dean Neidhardt and Mrs. Phillip Wade are making plans for the party.

The women of the chapter will cook and deliver a complete dinner to the chapter's adopted family.

At the Dec. 2 educational meeting "The Mind" was the subject presented by Mmes. Wilton La Blanc and Glen Hester. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Kessenick, 18911 Yukon.

Following the "Educational" the members worked on tray favors for the Children's Ward at the Harbor General Hospital. Mmes. Glen Hester and Richard Beck chose Santa's Sleigh for the favors.

Science Show Is Seen at School

"Adventures in Science," General Electric's latest traveling show, was seen by 1000 students at Stephen M. White Junior High School Dec. 4. The program was introduced by Elmer W. Grimes, sponsor of the show.

Sounds of a rocket shoot and an orbiting satellite opened the program which featured a series of demonstrations including fluorescent tubes, rocket launching and sound traveling on a beam of light.

The show stressed the importance of students taking advantage of educational opportunities and making the most of individual abilities and ambitions.

"Adventures in Science" was presented by Lewis M. Teeter and Thomas E. Roberts from General Electric, Schenectady, New York. By the end of the school year, these men will have presented more than five hundred shows to a quarter of a million young people in the United States.

Civinettes Hear About "Pinky Puppet Project"

The Torrance Civinettes held a board of directors and business meeting Dec. 1.

Two representatives from the Volunteers for children, Mmes. Carmen Power and Millie West, explained the "Pinky Project" and showed how to make the little hand puppets. Several kits were passed to the club members. Each kit holds twelve puppets for children in hospitals on Christmas.

The Christmas party will be held on Dec. 8. Present plans include a dinner at the Palms.

The meeting following will include a tour of the new "Riviera Hospital."

Breakfast Club Party

The Torrance Breakfast Club will hold a Christmas party Dec. 14. Members will meet at the Fish Shanty at 5 p.m. for dinner and an exchange of gifts. At 7 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Fay Parks of Eldorado will entertain the group at their home.
