Market Owner's Screams Scare Holdup Man

A youthful bandit was frightened away by the screams of a woman market owner Sunday, and almost mowed her down in his car while making his get-away.

Mrs. J. R. Klink, owner of a market at 2323 Cabrillo Ave., said the young robber entered her store Sunday afternoon, and displayed a gun under his coat, and held a bag.

Before he could say anything, Mrs. Klink started shouting for help, causing the holdupman to bolt out the door.

The suspect then got into his car, and in his hurry, he almost struck Mrs. Klink and a clerk who were chasing him.
