Junior Convention to Be Held This Month

"The sky is the limit" declared Mrs. Paul Olenik when she took office last June as president of Marha District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, and that will be the theme April 17 and 18 when the third annual convention of the organization takes place at the Miramar Hotel in Los Angeles.

Representatives from the 11 clubs comprising the district will gather at 11 a.m. April 17 for a workshop and business meeting.

Election of officers for the district, with Mrs. Robert Dreizler heading the slate for president will be held.

Following luncheon, club presidents will give their reports of the year's activities. The Friday evening banquet will feature installation of officers, press-book awards, and presentation of one percent district attendance certificates.

under the direction of James Burt. Highlight of the Saturday luncheon will be the presentation of the philanthropy check to a representative of the Leukemia Research Foundation at UCLA. The final session will also see awards given to the clubs with the most outstanding reports in the various fields undertaken by junior clubs. These fields include Americanism and Legislation, Crafts, Fine Arts, Home, International Affairs, Mental Health, Operation G.I., Penny Art, Philanthropy, Youth and Build a Better Community.

El Dorado Toastmistresses Hold Meeting

Mrs. Louis Sprague, president of El Dorado Toastmistress Club, will preside at the next meeting, 10 a.m. Wednesday morning at Scrivener's Restaurant, 3425 W. Manchester Blvd.

Mrs. Ethel Williams, guest speaker will conduct a workshop on parliamentary law, and Mrs. Thomas Layden will act as toastmistress. Lexicology will be given by Mrs. John Lundgren; education by Mrs. Karl DeLorimier; and table topics by Mrs. Ross Turner. Mrs. La Grande Coates will act as timer and Mrs. Robert Calhoun will be the evaluator. The inspiration given by Mrs. Dale Yates will bring the meeting to a close.

TWIN STYLES AND TWINS set the pace for the Mother of Twins Fashion Show scheduled for April 20 at the Plush Horse. Styles from Barbara Sue Fashions, 1534 West Carson, will be shown by the Torrance Mannequins. Dorothy Wilkes and Mona Norris model identical

A COLOR SEASON is the word. A sunburst of intricate draping and jacket buttons at the waist line with sparkling rhinestones will accent the season. From left, Mona Norris models a bathing suit appropriately called the "Big Catch" and Dorothy Wilkes shows a suit featuring all the latest fashion notes. The eye-stopping styles from The Gay Shop, 1319 Sartori Ave., will be shown at the Caprino Luncheon Style show today.

Bowman, and Cass United in Marriage

A wedding at the Western Ave. Baptist Church performed by Rev. Walter Graham united Miss Linda Marie Bowman and Ronald Oren Cass at 4 p.m. ceremonies April 4.

Baskets of stocks decorated the church as the bride wearing a grey suit with pink accessories and carrying a bouquet of pink butterfly orchids exchanged vows with the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carpenter, 21305 Carolale Ave.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowman of 1751 West 254 St., Lomita, was escorted to the altar on the arm of her father.

Mrs. David Carpenter, served the bride as Matron of honor, her husband David Carpenter attended the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Carpenter wore a green and gold tweed suit with accessories of tan. Her corsage was of baby green orchids.

The bride's mother chose a dress of navy blue with white accessories and carried white glads. The mother of the bridegroom chose a light blue crepe dress with a lace top and pink accessories. Her corsage was composed of pink flowers.

Mrs. Dorothy McDonald was organist and accompanist for Mrs. Ester Howe, soloist, who sang "The Lord's Prayer," "True Love" and "Hand in Hand."

Mrs. Francis Johnson, assisted by Miss Eulene Fogle and Mrs. J. Henry acted as hostess at the reception for 50 guests at the Church Hall following the wedding ceremony.

Miss Kathy Bowman acted as guest book registrar with Miss Elaine Denim receiving the wedding gifts for the couple.

The newlyweds will spend a week in San Francisco before returning to their new home on Arlington Ave.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and is employed by Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. The bridegroom is a graduate of Banning High School and is employed by a wholesale house in Los Angeles.

Miss McNeil Feted at Bridal Shower

Miss Jean McNeil, fiancée of Jerry Doyle, was entertained at a bridal shower March 31 by Mrs. William Butcher Jr. and Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom. A pink and white motif was used in decorating with streamers, wedding bells and pink and white daisies.

Several games were played following opening of the gifts. A pink-iced cake with entwined hearts reading "Jean" and "Jerry" was served with punch.

Attending were the Misses Carla Osterlind, Sharon Clark, Bonnie Lambert, Celia Haight, La Donna Goldsmith, Marsha Tappin, Joyce Wayt, Linda Priddy, Charlotte Percy, Michele Redhead, Jerene Tussey, Sharon McCabe, Judy Stiney, Janice Debbes, Carmen Valdivia, Neila McDonald, Betty Corsentino, Paula Bischoff, Joan Donald, Sharon Giles, Kathy Kohl, Mardell Clayton, Jean McNeil, and Mmes. Bertha McNeil, Sandstrom and Butcher. Sending gifts but unable to attend were Miss Barbara Heibert and Mrs. John Haskell.

The wedding is planned for June.

Church Wedding Joins Smith and Steinbach

Baskets of white glads and mums decorated the Wayside Methodist Church of Lomita at the April 4 evening wedding uniting Gwendolyn Ann Smith and Thomas Jerome Steinbach.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith, 25324 Woodward Ave., Lomita, was given in marriage by her father to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Steinbach of 25344 Woodward Ave., Lomita.

Rev. Howard Rose performed the double ring ceremony uniting the couple. The bride wore a rose pink lace and silk taffeta gown. The lace bodice of the dress featured a scalloped "V" jeweled neckline and long bridal sleeves. The lace bouffant skirt was detailed by a wide flounce of silk taffeta which fell into a chapel train.

Turquoise, brocaded sheaths of taffeta with matching tulle hats were worn by the bridesmaids who carried bouquets of white and pink camellias. Serving as bridesmaids were Kathy Williams, Carol Mathews, Sandy Kellogg, maid of honor was Marion Wentler, cousin of the bride. George Smith, the bride's brother acted as best man and Larry Richards, Mike Smith and Jack Emery served as ushers.

Little Terry Steinbach, the bridegroom's niece, completed the wedding party as flower girl. The bride's mother wore a pink shantung sheath with accessories of pink shoes and gloves and a white hat. The bridegroom's mother wore an identical ensemble in blue.

Mrs. Jack Emery acted as guest book registrar for the reception of 300 guests at the church social hall and home of the bride following the wedding. The newlyweds will make their new home in Inglewood upon return from a week's honeymoon in Carmel.

Both are graduates of Narbonne High School and have attended Harbor College. The bridegroom holds a degree in architectural engineering and is in business with his father. The bride is employed as a secretary at Space Technology Laboratory in Inglewood.
