'Flower Carousel' Prize Winners Named in Announcement Here

The garden and garage of Mrs. William Burke's home, Palos Verdes Riviera, overflowed with flower arrangements Monday as Los Colinas Garden Club held its Flower Carousel.

Winning first prizes for their entries were Miss Linda Levanas, children's section; Miss Vicki Doty, children's section; Miss Susan Gault, children's district garden section; Mrs. Sidney Greene, district garden section; Mrs. Matthews McIntyre, potted plants; and Mrs. Wayne Pratt, daisy specimen bloom.

Judges for the show were Mmes. R. G. Maben and Lawrence Vernond. Hostesses were Mmes. William Burk, Ray Hogan, Max Boyer, Richard Dierich, Robert Baldwin and William Leonhard. Mmes. Jack Worthen and Owen O'Brien were in charge of arrangements.

A special meeting, May 18, for election of officers will be held at the home of Mrs. William Doty, president, with Mrs. Owen O'Brien, co-hostess. Refreshments will be served by Mms. Ray Hogan and Matthew McIntyre.

Fuchsia Queen Crowned at Redondo Picnic

Betsie Gayle Davis, Inglewood, was chosen queen of the California Fuchsia Society at their annual picnic at Redondo Park Sunday.

Carmen Hernandez, North Long Beach, and Donna Hare, Pomona, were chosen as princesses.

Judging the contest were Joseph Volpe, Al Fell, Fred M. Mrs. Herma Tillim and Mit Svensk.

Loren Paulsohn, past president of the California National Fuchsia Society, served as master of ceremonies and Elmer Munson, president of the California National Fuchsia Society, crowned the winners.

More than 300 people representing the 30 California branches of the society attended the picnic with the Garden Branch acting as hostess.
