

Annual Spring Concert to Be Given at Torrance High School Tomorrow

The fifth annual Spring Concert of Torrance High School will be presented by the Music Department in the auditorium tomorrow at 8 p.m.

Opening the program will be the High School Orchestra playing the "March of the Meistersingers." Student Conductor Darel Kelley will direct the orchestra in the number "Park Avenue Fantasy." The orchestra will play another number from the Broadway hit, "The Music Man." Following will be the Girls' Glee Club rendering De Rose's "I Heard a Forest Praying." They will close their part of the program by singing "Hey There."

The High School Concert Band will present five musical numbers. Featured will be the Student Conductor Gary Tierman, directing the band in a selection from "My Fair Lady."

The last performing group will be the Tarter A Capella Choir. Their repertoire of four numbers will include selections from Rodgers and Hammerstein's famous "Oklahoma."

The concluding number will be the finale featuring all four organizations combined to render "Glory and Honor" under the dual conductorship of Mr. Nichols and Mr. Di Fiore.

This musical program is under the direction of J. W. Nichols, and Vincent Di Fiore of the Torrance High School Music Department, who invite the general public to attend. There is no admission charge.

National Supply Wins Award for Safety at Plant

The highest award of the National Safety Council has been presented to The National Supply Company's plant here.

Known as the Award of Honor, it was presented to John D. Spalding, works manager, at a meeting of the plant's Management Club last night. Frank Regehr, safety director of the Aluminum Company of America, made the presentation on behalf of the National Safety Council.

Barber Quartets Slate Concert at Torrance High

A Barbershop Quartet Show will be held Saturday night at 8 p.m. at Torrance High School Auditorium, 2200 Carson St. featuring Quartets and the local Chapters Chorus.

The program will open with a welcome by Truman V. Tyler, president of the Palos Verdes Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.

Master of Ceremonies for the show will be Robert A. Dickinson. The Chapter Chorus will open the program with such well known songs as "When You Were Sweet Sixteen," "Tell Me You'll Forgive Me," and "Yona from Arizona."

Next the audience will be entertained by the following SPEBSQSA Barbershop Quartets "The Beach Chords" from Long Beach Chapter—"The Freelander Four" from the Palos Verdes Chapter and "the Feenstra Brothers" from Downey Chapter.

Then a community sing will be held for the entire audience led by Les Woodson, vice president of the Far Western District.

RECEIVES AWARD—Army Pfc. James R. Smith, 24, (right) of Torrance receives an incentive award from Brig. Gen. Thomas H. Beck, commander of the Yukon Command at Ladd Air Force Base, Alaska. Smith, a clerk in the office of the Inspector General of the command's Headquarters Company, suggested that drain pipes be installed over building doorways, which would eliminate dangerous ice on sidewalks surrounding the command's buildings in Alaska. He entered the Army in March, 1958. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Smith, live at 22979 Adolph. —U. S. Army Photo
