

Woman Mayor Recent BPW Guest Speaker

The first woman mayor of Maywood, Reva Allsop, spoke on " Civic Affairs" at the recent dinner-meeting of the Torrance Business and Professional Woman's Club held at the Palms restaurant.

As part of the club's community interest program for the year, the members visited the Torrance Post office and purchased Postal Savings Bonds.

Mmes. Clara Conner, Torrance postmaster; Rose Craig and Tess Burk served as chairmen for the evening.

Mrs. Kenneth Boulter president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club attended as the special guest.

Local Nursing Graduate

Patricia Mounger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Mounger, 1222 Portola, is now at home in Torrance following her June 12 graduation from the UCLA School of Nursing.

Miss Mounger holds a bachelor of Science degree along with Registered Nurse and Public Health degrees and a school health credential.

A graduate of Torrance High School, '55, Miss Mounger was a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority and president of Alpha Tau Delta National Nursing Fraternity for Women.

She will begin her career as a public health nurse August at the Torrance Public Health Center.

Women of Moose Install Senior Regent

Mrs. Elsie Smith will be installed as senior regent of the Torrance Women of the Moose at the Moose Hall, June 27, at 7:30 p. m.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Smith are Virginia Jenkins, graduate regent; Lillian Dixon, junior regent; Lulu Sollamon, chaplain; Joyce Clay, recorder; Ruth Wright, treasurer; Virginia Olsin, guide; Ruby Harley, associate guide; Alena Chaney, argus; Letha Coffee, sentinel; and Lucille Meyers, pianist.

Wedding Plans Postponed Here

Larry D. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Miller of 2426 West 236th St., will leave next week for Fort Ord, where he will complete his Army basic training.

Wedding plans for recently engaged Miller and Miss Ingrid Stenger of 1606 West 247 Place, Lomita, will be postponed until his three years of army service are completed.

Miller will follow basic training with military police school in Georgia.

Local Benefit Dance to Aid Stricken Vet

A benefit dance will be held Saturday at the Torrance American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave., 8 p. m.

Entertainment, door prizes and a white elephant sale will be featured.

Funds from the dance will go towards aiding the family of 32 year old Harold "Blackie" Francis of 3035 Winlock Rd., who was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage April 24, and now lies in a coma in the Long Beach Veteran's Hospital, following an expensive stay in a private hospital.

Among the many friends of the Francis family who have helped with the arrangements for the benefit are, Mrs. Fern Nash, Postmaster Clara Conner; Chamber manager, Dick Fitzgerald, Maybell Banks and Mrs. Anne Kelley.

Local merchants have donated the door prizes. Donation tickets will be sold at the door.
