Call Meet on Park Election

A meeting to discuss a third try for a recreation and park bond issue will be called tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the old city hall, 1511 Cravens Ave.

Mrs. Eva Bisou, president of the Southwest Park Civic Association, said that she and Mrs. Herma Tillim, former chairman of the Park and Recreation Commission are calling the meeting in order to determine the feelings of representatives of organizations.

Home owner groups, Scout and other civic organizations have been asked to send representatives to the meeting.

Mrs. Bisou said that the representatives will be able to go back to their own organizations and solicit their support for a bond issue.

So far, a $4,000,000 figure has been mentioned in connection

Second Entry to City Airport Request Opposed

A second entrance to Torrance Municipal Airport will be discussed at the Airport Commission meeting Aug. 27.

The second opening into the airfield is being resisted by David Stewart, president of Vegas Airways, who claims that the entrance will endanger cars and airplanes near his firm.

Airport Manager Jack Egan said that the second entrance is needed to serve patrons on the east end of the airport who now drive on the main taxi strip.

with a new bond issue.

Twice before in the last couple of years, bond issues have been defeated. The money was to go to the acquisition of land and development of recreational facilities.

NEW RED FEATHER TROPHY—Jay A. Robinson, right, donates a new revolving trophy to Harbor Area Chest leaders Mrs. Rosemary de Camp, residential chairman, and Jim Becker, area chairman. The Jay A. Robinson Trophy will go to the residential unit chairman who makes highest percentage of quota during the forthcoming campaign.
