

Alondra Park Methodists Stress Church Education

The importance of Christian education will be stressed during this month at Alondra Park Methodist Church 3153 W. Compton Blvd., Gardena.

Plans made by the Commission on Education will culminate in the nationally observed Christian Education Week, Sept. 27-Oct. 4.

Attention of the entire church is focused on the weekly study period by adoption of a new schedule of worship service and Sunday school hours beginning Sept. 13. Special events of the month will include a church school workers conference Sept. 23 with Mrs. Louena Bailey, literature advisor of the Methodist Publishing House, and the annual Rally Day church-wide picnic on Sept. 27. Mrs. Chuck Hippler is chairman of the Commission on Education; Alex Miller is church school general superintendent.

The new family study and worship emphasis will begin this Sunday, through a change in the worship time schedule. Identical worship services will be conducted at 9 and 11 a.m. Rev. Earl W. Isbell pastor, will carry the Christian education emphasis in his sermons. His topic for Sunday will be "Making Life's Great Decisions."

From 10:10 to 11:50 a.m. the Youth Division (grade 7 through age 23) will meet. Rev. Carl G. Bader, associate pastor, will lead the session. Simultaneously an extended session for pupils who attend regular church school classes at 9 or 11 a.m. will be conducted.

RARE TREAT—New Torrance teachers were introduced at a deluxe steak-fry Sunday at Torrance Park. Seated at the left of table is Frank Jones of Hillside Elementary School. Opposite him are, left, Thurman Winkels, South Bay Community School; Robert Dexter, principal; Marilyn Wright and Marlene Hickman, teachers of Sepulveda Elementary School and Joel Hickman of Carl Steele Elementary School.
