

PAST PRESIDENTS PINS were awarded at the first fall meeting of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, program chairman, places a pin on Mrs. Gerald Eastham, 1954-55 president, as Mrs. Eugene Cook, president, 1955-56, looks on. This was the first time former officers were honored with pins. The affair was held at Caprino's Restaurant. See Story, Page Five

Y-Wives Fashion Show

Local Models to Show Latest Styles

"Pathways to Fashion" will be the theme of the Torrance Y-Wives' annual fashion show, Sept. 25, 8 p. m. at the YWCA, 2320 West Carson St.

Mrs. Johnson Lofland, president of the Y-Wives, will introduce the program. Jeanne Barnhart will comment on the styles furnished by Pic-Wic Fashions of Torrance, and Joe Feeney, lyric tenor with Lawrence Welk's band, will highlight the show with several vocal selections.

Feeney will appear through arrangements made by Lorina Pickel, owner of the Pic-Wic store.

Models include Mmes. Dennis Beyersdorf, James Callahan, Bernard Evans, Richard Evans, John Gorman, George Haug, Milton Huber, Maurice Ransom, Francis Ruthosky and James Swancoat. Door prizes, donated by some of the local firms, will be given and are now on display at the YWCA. Tickets for the style event are available at Torrance YWCA. Reservations may be obtained by calling the "Y" at FAirfax 8-5914.

Fashion show committees and chairmen are as follows: Mmes. Bernard Evans, chairman; Steve Myzel, refreshments; Bernard Evans, decorations; Maurice Ransom, tickets; Frank Milner and John Engle, receptionists; Robert Moser and William Adams, hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gorman, programs; Mmes. Dennis Beyersdorf, music and entertainment; Richard Evans, door prizes; John Gorman, publicity; Richard Evans, make-up and jewelry, and Warner Burt, hair styling.

for and about Women

MARY NETH, WOMAN'S EDITOR

TELEPHONE FAirfax 8-2345

"PATHWAYS TO FASHION"—Mrs. Dennis Beyersdorf and Mrs. Richard Evans model two of the chic fall selections that will be shown at the Y-Wives' annual fashion show Friday at 8 p. m. at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St. Pic-Wic Fashions will present the show.

Broadway to Show Hat Styles Wednesday

There will be a millinery fashion show in the Terrace Room of the Broadway Del Amo Wednesday, at 12:30 p.m.

Millinery for fall and winter will be shown by models with specially featured derby and fedora styles in the exciting new haberdasher look. Well represented in the show will be the important new pillbox styles. These range from tiny "nothing" hats to high crowned hats in velvets with sparkling jeweled highlights.

For pure luxury the "Call of the Wild" hats will be shown in many beautiful styles in rich, luxurious mink, fox and beaver.

St. Timothy's Parish Laymen Attend Conference

James O. Cayton and Robert Hollister of Torrance represented St. Timothy's parish yesterday at the Tenth Annual Laymen's Conference of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles.

The all-day discussion, held at the Ambassador Hotel, was keyed to "Christian Education as it relates to Parish, Family and Community Life."

Various phases of the theme were outlined by division chairmen with St. Rev. Francis Eric Eloy, bishop of Los Angeles, opening the conference with Holy Communion and closing it with an address at 4:30 p.m.

Use Press Classified Ads—call FA 8-2345; ask for an ad-taker.

City of Hope to Hold Champagne Benefit

Torrance Chapter City of Hope will hold its Champagne Cocktail Party, today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwartz, 3244 Eldorado St., from 5 to 9 p.m.

Ticket donations of $5 per couple may be purchased at the door.

Proceeds from the party will go to the non-sectarian City of Hope Hospital.

Mrs. Walter West, head of the Torrance Chapter, states "Our group is especially interested in the advancements made in the children's leukemia work at City of Hope. The children there are of every race and creed and receive the loving care along with the best of medical treatment."

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz will be Mmes. Sol Young, Bert Lynn, Robert Tripplett, Dean Sears and William Boswell.

Contributions to "City of Hope" including Sunday's Champagne Party are tax deductible.

Two Charity Bridge Games Announced by Torrance Club

Two evenings of bridge play with charity as the object are announced by the Torrance Bridge Club.

The ACBL Charity games will be held at the Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia at 8 p.m. Thursday

Wollmer, Streiff Wedding Plans Are Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wollmer of 3736 West 174th St. announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce, to Richard Edward Streiff, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Sawyer, 20934 South LaSalle Ave.

The bride-elect is a Lutheran High School graduate now attending El Camino College.

Streiff, presently employed as a longshoreman, attended Gardena High School and served in the U. S. Navy for 3½ years. The couple have set April 9 as the date of the wedding.

and at the YWCA at 8 p.m. on Oct. 6.

All proceeds of the affairs will be given to the American Red Cross. Refreshments will be donated and various firms in Torrance will provide the door prizes. Trophies for the winners will be awarded.

One Master Point to the winners of each section, the same as MMP game, will be given.

There will be no eligibility requirements asked for those planning to attend.

An eight week series game for the girls will begin Sept. 18 at 12 a.m. at the Torrance YWCA.

Through the series is for women only men who play at the Friday Bridge Club games will also have a chance to win the trophy.

The Bridge Club's monthly master point game will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the YWCA.

The bridge event is usually a two or three section game with one full Master Point going to each North-South and East-West couple that wins a section.

Eligibility for the game is open to all who play in at least one regular weekly game during the preceding four weeks.

Rummage Sale Slated

Mothers of Girl Scout troop 293 will hold a rummage sale next Friday at the House of Rummage, 12th and Pacific, San Pedro, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., announces Mrs. John Lindeburg, chairman of projects.

For rummage pick-ups call DA. 6-1426 or DA. 6-6895.

Anniversary Noted by Welcome Wagon

Using a giant birthday card for a theme, Torrance Welcome Wagon Club celebrated its first birthday at the Plush Horse, Wednesday.

During the luncheon festivities, Dorothy Stoeckle, Welcome Wagon hostess, congratulated the Club on a crowded year of accomplishments, comparable to 2 or 3 year's achievements.

A banner of birthday congratulations from the Torrance Chamber of Commerce stretched across the front of the speaker's table, and a letter from Manager Dick Fitzgerald stated "The Torrance Chamber of Commerce is proud of the many wonderful things you have done for this community, and assures you that we are proud of all of you."

The Welcome Club seeks to integrate newcomers into the community with hospitality and holds a monthly luncheon meeting. Seventy-two women out of the club's 85 members were present to watch Betty Bordley, president, cut the birthday cake and present the first piece to Bobby Waldrop, past president.

The many interest groups help new members acquaint themselves and find activity in golf, drama, gardening, bowling, canasta, bridge, and an extensive program of welfare and civic activities.

The Decorating Committee for the anniversary event, Mmes. Herb Dugger, John Schilling Jr., and Harold Korell, chairman, revived childhood excitement in dressing the doll used in the gaily trimmed doll carriage, and had fun slapping paint and sewing ruffles.

Mrs. Dugger decorated candles, which highlighted the dining tables which was festooned with flowers and streamers.

Kalman decorated the large cake before the club members, as added entertainment.

Artists Announce "Beau Arts Ball"

"Come and have a ball at our Beau Arts Ball," invite local artists.

The South Bay Community Arts Association is having its first big social of the year on Oct. 10 at the Palos Verdes Country Club.

Beau Arts Ball chairman John Perkins and his committee have put together a "fabulous first" for the association using the Paris Impressionist Period of the 1860s to the 1890s for the ball theme.

Lending atmosphere to the ball will be life size copies of paintings of that period done by the association artists. Dancing to an orchestra, a colorful show featuring the Jan Darian Can Can dancers, an exciting magic act with Tom Sexton doing a flame swallowing stunt, Sally Hamblin artist and singer rendering songs "alla broken French" and a buffet spread at midnight will make the ball a ball.

Donation is $5.00 per person. Call Anna Lee DeHog, ticket chairman at FR. 6-1904 or Isabelle Cooke at FR. 4-1518 for your reservation. Proceeds go towards the associations constant efforts to establish the south bay area as a cultural center.

Senior Citizens to Attend Fair

Tomorrow will be Senior Citizens Day at the Los Angeles County Fair.

Redondo Beach Senior Citizens will sponsor two trips to the fair. All senior citizens of the area are invited and may make their reservations by contacting Mrs. Elsa Stone, bus trip chairman, at DA 9-3770.

Buses will leave the Gardena Terminal at 8:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. Cost of the excursion will be $1.25 for bus fare and 40 cents gate admission for each person attending.

INTERNATIONAL HARMONY—Walter Stocker of Switzerland takes a turn at the piano as, left, Paul Bedeschi of Italy, Adam Sujadi of Indonesia and Mrs. Henry Schmal, chairman of the Torrance American Field Service, looks on. The foursome were guests at the YWCA reception Thursday in honor of foreign and American summer exchange students.

YWCA Reception Honors Foreign Exchange Students

Torrance chapter of the American Field Service held a reception Thursday evening at the YWCA for the 1959-60 Foreign and American Summer Exchange students.

The Foreign Exchange students honored, their schools and foster parents for the year were: Adam Sujadi, from Java, Indonesia; North High School; Robert Brigham family; Paul Bedeschi from Reggio Emilia, Italy; South High School; Thomas Cotter family; Walter Stocker, Zurich, Switzerland; Torrance High School; Paul Crossman family.

The three American Summer Exchange students honored at the reception were: Mary Smiley, Torrance High School, who spent the summer in Austria, Gerald Duncan, North High School, who spent the summer in Germany and Michael Robbins of South High who was the Torrance A. F. S. representative in Finland.

Invitations to the reception were received by the following: Mayor Albert Isen, Dr. H. Hull, members of the board of education, principals of Torrance High Schools.

Presidents of the Vecinas Womans Club, Lions Club, Welcome Wagon, Hollywood Riviera Rotary Club, Torrance Rotary club, Torrance Womans and Junior Womans clubs, Torrance American Legion Auxiliary, Pilot Club, Torrance Educational Association.

Presidents for the Christian Women's fellowship, of the Torrance PTA council and chapters and student body representatives from the three High Schools.

Hosts for the reception were the Torrance A. F. S. committee for 1959-60. Mmes. Henry Schmal, chairman; Thomas Parker, recording secretary; Theo Linhart Jr., corresponding secretary; A. C. Turner, treasurer; Thomas O'Malley, home placement; Thomas Smiley, ways and means; Carl Duncan, co-ordinator for Americans abroad; James Cleminger, activities; John Walti, speaking engagements and John Melville, publicity.

Fall Fashion Show Set for Broadway

Miss Marilyn Karem, fashion representative for Koret of California, will introduce Koret's new fall and winter fashions at a fashion show at the Broadway Del Amo on Wednesday, Sept. 23, at 3:45 p. m. in the sportswear department.

Miss Karem will show high school and college girls, career women and homemakers how they can achieve both versatility and individuality in their wardrobes on a modest budget. The secret is a fashion formula which enables you to enjoy 12 different costumes from three basic ensembles.

Miss Karem will also demonstrate how to plan a wardrobe which expresses one's own fashion individuality by selecting coordinating separates and then flavoring them with a blouse, skirt or sweater in an entirely different color or fabric.

A native Californian, Miss Karem is a graduate of University of California with a bachelor's degree in art. She enjoys introducing California fashions as she feels they offer women excellent fashion plus exciting color and flattering wearable silhouettes.

Local Woman to Attend Legion Parley

Mrs. Frank Batezck, 3830 W. 185th St., will attend the dinner meeting of the past presidents' parley of the 24th District of American Legion Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Jim Nealy, 2200 Prosser Ave., Los Angeles, next Friday.

Proceeds of the dinner will be used to furnish Christmas gifts for women veterans at the Veterans Administration Hospital, West Los Angeles.

Mrs. Batezck works regularly at the snack bar in the same hospital and is recording secretary of the 24th District. She is a past president of Will Rogers Unit 539.

Use Press Classified Ads—call FA 8-2345; ask for an ad-taker.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—Torrance Welcome Wagon celebrated its first anniversary Wednesday with a party at the Plush Horse. Left, Mrs. Herb Dugger, secretary, and Mrs. Harold Korell, chairman of the Gardena group, look over some of the party's festive decorations.