PTA Discusses Torrance, Konya

Torrance - Konya affiliation again was discussed this week by the Torrance PTA for the coming year in an international relations workshop at the Carl Steel School.

Charles Wortham, Torrance's honorary ambassador to Konya, spoke and displayed articles from his recent visit to the sister city.

Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, president of the Junior Woman's Club, outlined their international program, which is this year stressing Torrance - Konya relationships.

Naomi McVey, Konya Day chairman, outlined plans for the celebration Feb. 28.

Mrs. Jack Erving, international relations chairman of PTA Torrance council, outlined objectives and encouraged each unit to undertake a specific project to promote exchange of ideas between the two cities.

District Nurses Hear Talk on Legislation

"The Nurse's Stake in Legislation" was the subject of the program for members of the California State Nurse's Association, district 21, when they met the evening of Oct. 14 at the Long Beach YWCA.

Miss Louise Siegrist, district president, introduced Hal Reynolds, legislative advocate of the CSNA, and Assemblyman William S. Grant, district 70. Their discussions focused on the legislative program of CSNA for 1959, and the role that local associations should play in assisting the Legislature to enact sound laws relating to nursing.

Torrance Chairman The legislative program of district 21 is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Inez Hoffman, Torrance. This committee had a special briefing session preceding the general meeting, on the functioning of legislative committees.

Reynolds, who joined the association staff early this year, has wide experience in Sacramento as legislative advocate for professional organizations. He has also had governmental experience with the National Housing Authority and the United States Department of Agriculture.

Assist Students

District 21, CSNA has had fund-raising projects this year to make it possible to assist two young area women to study nursing. Joyce Grimes, San Pedro, is in her second year at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital. She received assistance both years. Verla Meyers entered Queen of Angels Hospital School of Nursing in September, through the financial assistance of the local nursing association.

The district association suggest they would be glad to accept individual or group donations for the fund. For further information call Miss Siegrist at TE 3-9520 after 5 p.m.
