

Torrance Rose Parade Float Assured, Even With Defecit

Torrance's entry in the Tournament of Roses Parade has been assured even though a $450 deficit still exists, according to George A. Bradford, chairman of the sponsoring Chamber of Commerce committee.

Bradford said he is hopeful firms and community organizations will come forward so Torrance once again can pay its own way.

Bradford, a City Councilman, said the chamber is proud the entry is financed entirely without tax money.

Nearly $5000 necessary for the float's completion was raised from community participation in the Annual Torrance-Ranchero Days and from a fund-raising campaign.

The following recently donated:

Adams, Morgan, Latham, Kripp & Wright $35, Anonymous $2, California Rubber Products $25, Columbia Van Lines, Inc. $50, Logan R. Cotton & Myron Francisco $10, Rose Craig, Realtor $10, Dandoy Glass Co. $10, Glen's Auto Parts $10, H. G.
