"Dining With Ron"
By RON BURPO

When we eat in a favorable setting, the food contributes to the physical, mental and emotional well-being of our bodies. Much thought and effort is devoted to food, whether it be from the standpoint of producing it, eating it, or preparing it. A great army of people are involved in the business of food. Therefore we must take first things first. The first thing we do is find the restaurant that will best meet your needs for that particular evening. Once inside and seated we look over the menu.

Understanding the menu will make eating "out" a greater pleasure. Most menus offer both a la carte and table d'hote meals. A la carte means you may select any dish that you wish and pay for each separate item. The portions are usually larger, however, a complete meal bought this way would be more expensive. Table d'hote is usually listed as either the "luncheon" or the "dinner" or "today's special." This means that you pay a set price for the entire meal. The price is often shown besides the main course and includes several courses.

Birthday time is one of the happiest times of a youngster's life. He anxiously waits for the day to come, while the older generation, well let's just say they aren't anxiously awaiting their birthday. We were happy to have with us COTY CARLINE who celebrated his 9th birthday last Saturday.
