Two Torrance Airmen Complete Basic, Assigned to Tech Schools

Airman Thomas W. Nordstrom, 1308 Hickory Ave., and Airman James J. Blackstock, 3239 190th St., have completed their initial course of Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas. Both men have been selected to attend technical training courses. Nordstrom, a graduate of Torrance High School, will attend specialized training as a medical technician. This course is given at Lackland. Blackstock, who attended North High, will attend the course for aircraft and missile maintenance at Amarillo AFB. Both airmen were picked on basis of their interests and aptitudes. Upon completion of this special training they will be assigned to an operational unit of the USAF Aerospace Force.

Youth Symphony to Present Third Anniversary Concert

The Harbor Area Youth Symphony Orchestra will present its third-anniversary concert Wednesday, April 20, at 8 p.m. in the Retail Clerks Union Hall, 25949 Belleporte Ave., Harbor City. The orchestra, under direction of Eugene Minor, will be heard in the "Eroica" symphony by Beethoven, the "Little Fugue in G Minor" by Bach, and the overture to "Proud Music of the Storm" by Loundes Maury. Soloist will be James Lewis, clarinetist. Lewis, a student of Kalman Bloch, will play the Second Concerto by Weber. Appearing as special guests will be the Los Angeles City College brass choir and the Harbor Area Adult Chorus under direction of Ruth Adams. Eugene Minor is a student at LACC, where he is student conductor of the band, orchestra, and brass ensemble. He is a clarinetist studying with Ralph Garl, a composer, and has conducted the South Bay Civic Symphony. The orchestra was founded in 1957. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Torrance Air Force Office Signs 18 in Month of March

Tech. Sgt. Duane K. Hetler, 1805 W. 254th St.; John S. Foster, 339 E. 222nd St.; Bruce E. Jenkins, 17, 26615 Shady Vista, Palos Verdes; Jan T. Wennstrom, 18, 2922 W. 167th St.; Carl Nation Jr., 22, Hugo, Okla.; Charles M. Honglo, 18, Gardena; and Ronald E. Ashby, 18, 22729 Moneta. Mary Ellen DeBord, 18, Inglewood, was enlisted into the Women's Air Force. All have been sent to Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, where they will undergo eight weeks of basic training and then on to the careers for which they enlisted. John Shannon Harpster, 23, of Long Beach, tentatively qualified for the OTS program, which enables a man with a college degree to apply for a direct commission.

Torrance Toastmasters Install New Officers, Hear Speeches in Gardena

The 22nd semi-annual installation by Torrance Toastmasters International Club 695 was held Tuesday in Gardena with 35 Toastmasters and guests attending. Former club president and Area 3 Governor Frank Gorbet was installing officer. He relieved President Edwin Wheeler of his office and presented the president's gavel to Forest Beyrer, who is also executive secretary of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors. Others installed were Mike Luyt, educational vice president; Bud Cadwell, administrative vice president; John Hedlund, secretary; Charles Wise, treasurer; Jack Oxford, publicity director; and Roger Saunders, sergeant-at-arms. Table topics under direction of another former president, Bob White, Area 3 publicity director, found four Toastmasters speaking impromptu on "Vacation Highlights." Toastmaster of the evening Jack Oxford introduced the formal speakers—Ross Potter, recent winner of the Area 3 and District 51 humorous-speech contests, "I Was a Greebawozzie!" Bill Wallace, winner of the Area 3 extemporaneous speakoff, "Peefoo;" and Gorbet, "The Spork."

Demo Club Tells Meeting Plans

The Lomita-Harbor City Democratic Club holds a membership meeting on the fourth Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Charles King Youth Hall, 1411 W. 253rd St., Harbor City. Anyone wishing to join may attend. The Democratic Clubs of the 68th Assembly District are sponsoring a social and dance Saturday, April 30 at 8:30 p.m. at the Retail Clerks Union Hall, 25949 Belleporte Ave., Harbor City. Food and drinks will be served. Tickets will be sold at the door.
