Remodeled Fern-Greenwood School Will Reopen Monday

The rehabilitated and remodeled Fern building of the Fern-Greenwood campus will reopen Monday, ending double sessions there.

The building was earthquake-proofed and lighting, heating, and soundproofing systems were modernized. Nine classrooms and administration facilities were involved.

With the end of double sessions, all classes again will start at 9 a.m., according to Joe T. Brandon, principal. Cafeteria facilities will not be ready this

Revival Crusade Set by Baptists

Sunday will mark the beginning of an eight-day revival crusade at the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church, 24785 Narbonne Ave.

The Rev. Walter Pegg, pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church of Washington, D.C., will be revival preacher. Dr. Pegg was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Huntington Park, California for more than 25 years.

He will speak at 8:30 and 10:50 a.m. services Sunday and 7:30 p.m. services Sunday through May 1.

Comittee chairmen named to Preside at Start of Race

Joe M. Doss, chairman of the aviation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, has announced committee chairmen to serve at the start of the 1960 All-Women's Transcontinental Air Race July 9.

The air classic will end in Wilmington, Del.

The City of Torrance, the Airport Commission, and the chamber will host the start from Torrance Airport and the activities leading up to it, which begin July 4.

The estimated 200 entrants, plus sponsors, families, and friends will headquarter at the new Plush Horse Inn. They will take over the entire facility for its grand opening.

Doss will be general chairman for the start, assisted by a committee of civic, community, and aviation leaders:
