

Pink Arrows Will Mark Route of Home Tour by Episcopalians

MRS. W. L. SWANSON
Home Tour Hostess

Tea Will Follow in Parish Hall

Pink arrows will direct visitors on this year's annual tour of Peninsula homes sponsored by the churchwomen of St. Francis Episcopal Church April 30 and May 1.

Featured will be the homes of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Swanson and Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Learned in Rolling Hills.

Also those of Mr. and Mrs. Frances Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norman, M. and Mrs. Dwight Stabler, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meine, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Conze in Palos Verdes Estates.

Starting points for the tour will be the Palos Verdes Plaza and the city gates of Rolling Hills. The men's club of the church, attired in pink helmets, will direct traffic. Following the event tea will be served in the Episcopal parish hall.

Patricia B. Brand, chairman, has announced that the homes selected feature a variety of settings, landscaping, and architecture.

The ticket brochure, now on sale, may be purchased at the parish hall or at tour starting points.

Women

Fashion Talk Scheduled by Las Vecinas

Las Vecinas Woman's Club will hear a lecture by Miss Ruth Rogers, travel and fashion consultant, at a meeting Thursday in the Banbury Room of the Plush Horse.

Miss Rogers will model cruise wear, discuss shipboard and Pacific-resort fashions, and outline a complete travel wardrobe for a limited budget.

Chairman for the event is Mrs. Donald Arnt. Decorations will follow a Hawaiian theme.

At a brief business session, the nominating committee will present its slate of officers for the 1960-61 club year.

Scouts Note 3rd Anniversary

Girl Scout Troop 2080 observed its third anniversary by inviting Troop 1361 to join a week-end camping trip to Camp Comfort in Ojai.

Members worked toward their camping badges and celebrated with cake and ice cream.

The troops are under the leadership of Mmes. Ray Bonawitz, Paul Eaton, and Al Hawkins. Mrs. Howard L. Thompson is neighborhood chairman.

League Auxiliary Plans Contest

The Women's Auxiliary of Torondo Little League will sponsor a beauty contest to select its Miss Little League and Miss Baseball Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Flavian School.

To be eligible contestants must be between the ages of 8 and 12 and have a brother in the league.

Caribbean Fashions Set for Philotohos Show

Members of the Philotohos Dorcas Chapter of St. Katherine's Greek Orthodox Church will model summer styles to a calypso beat when they stage their Jamaica Holiday fashion show Saturday at 8 p.m. in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach.

Jamaican entertainment and music will be featured. Proceeds from the event will benefit the church building fund.

Persons interested in attending may call Helen Stavros at FR 5-9780. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

MISS SUSAN McGRANAHAN
Fuchsia Queen

Flower Queen Selected by Fuchsia Society

Miss Susan McGranahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGranahan, 17805 Florwood Ave., has been elected queen of the Lomita Fuchsia Society and will be one of 24 contestants seeking the title of Miss Fuchsia Queen at the society's district picnic May 1 in Long Beach.

The winner will reign at the annual Fuchsia Flower and Shade-Plant Show, sponsored by the California National Fuchsia Society, June 18 and 19 in the Long Beach Municipal auditorium.

Two princesses also will be selected to serve with the queen. Ages of the girls competing are between 16 and 20.

Mrs. Raymond E. Arnold, president of the Lomita branch, has extended an invitation to all members and friends to attend both events.
