

DANCE FESTIVAL—Jeri Garland, Jeffrey Pasquariello and Jeri Lynn Poston danced with 936 pupils from Halldale School Friday morning on the playground. The Halldale PTA board served coffee and donuts to 250 parents after the festivity.

Chapeaux to Compete in Club Contest May 4

"Mad Hatter's Party" is the theme chosen this year by the Torrance Woman's Club, District 18, CFWC, for its annual headdress-fantasy contest being planned for Wednesday at the clubhouse.

First prizes will be awarded in categories featuring beauty, humor, originality, and theme depiction. All entries must be 75% flowers, fruit, or vegetables.

Judging the event will be Mrs. Lawrence Fernand and Richard Maben of Redondo Beach and T. J. de Chambeau of Manhattan Beach.

Mrs. Andrew Acampora, ways and means chairman, and H. F. Heinlein, program chairman, are in charge of arrangements. A catered luncheon will be served prior to the event.

Guests as well as members are eligible prizes. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. E. L. Lenk, FA 8-6932, or R. C. Robertson, DA 3-2114.

At its pot-luck luncheon Wednesday the club heard America compared with Indonesia and Switzerland by two foreign-exchange students attending Torrance High School.

Adam Sujadi of Java said that Indonesian teen-agers are very much like their counterparts in the U.S., but added that when a girl marries in Indonesia she discards American clothing for native costume.

Walter Stocker of Zurich observed that "people here never walk. Americans take their car to go a block," he said.

Following the program, Mrs. John Thuss, president, presided at a brief business meeting.

Reports were given by members who attended the recent district convention in Santa Monica. Mrs. Roy Apsey, president-elect, gave a resume of the meeting. Mrs. Lee McCoy spoke on the convention sidelines.

DISTAFF SIDE—Mrs. Edward Laughney and daughter Sally, 11, hold dress rehearsal for Methodist's fourth annual mother-and-daughter banquet scheduled Friday at the church hall.

CFWC Convention Slated May 9-12

The 57th annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs will convene in Los Angeles, May 9-12 at the Biltmore Hotel.

The convention theme "May Our Past Accomplishments be but a Prologue to the Future" will salute the 22 charter clubs which pioneered the federation sixty years ago.

On Monday evening delegates will hear reports by executive officers and a musical program, followed by the president's reception, honoring Mrs. A. F. Benton, president. Hostesses for the reception will be presidents of the six Los Angeles area districts.

General session on Tuesday will include revisions, resolutions, and presentation of candidates. A motion-picture and television award luncheon will follow in the ballroom.

In the afternoon, Dr. Katherine Lackey will speak on "Community Development, A Social Movement of the Second Half of the Twentieth Century."

Mrs. Benton, and Mrs. Donald Amato, junior director, will give reports at the evening session followed by presentation of special awards for CARE, and community achievement and conservation.

Wednesday activities will start with a parliamentary workshop at 7:45 a.m. District presidents and state chairmen reports and a musical program are scheduled for the morning.

The 60th anniversary banquet that evening will feature the nationally recognized lecturer and writer on the Middle east, Grant C. Butler. Following the speaker, the vogue-sewing contest winners will be presented, and the teacher-of-the-year award given.

Thursday morning, state chairmen will give reports and departmental awards, followed by a panel presentation, "Person to Person."

James Posts Welcome Third Child, A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Post, 4820 Rustler Lane, Rolling Hills, welcomed their third child, Jeffrey James, April 19 at Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Born at 12:49 a.m., tiny Jeffrey weighed in at six pounds, six ounces: He will join Sally Jean, 5, and Daniel Wallace, 3, in the Post household.

Mrs. Post is the former Beverly Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Hopkins of Torrance. Dorothy Post of Torrance is the paternal grandmother.

Post heads the James Post General Insurance Company, 1409 Marcelina Ave.

Fuchsia Society to Honor Uyedads

Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Uyeda will be honored for community service when the North Torrance Fuchsia Society holds its pot-luck luncheon May 10 at 6:30 p.m. in McMasters Park.

Following the dinner, Loren Paulsen will show slides of recent flower shows.

Sharing honors with Mr. and Mrs. Uyeda will be Mrs. Frances Donahoe and Frank Hinkel who will be given birthday plants by the membership.

Mother's Day won national recognition on May 8, 1914. On that day, President Woodrow Wilson signed a joint resolution of Congress recommending that Congress and the executive branch of government observe the special day.

Methodists Will Fete Mothers, Daughters

The First Methodist Church of Torrance will honor mothers and daughters of the congregation at its annual mother-daughter banquet Thursday, 6:30 p.m., in the church hall, 1551 El Prado Ave.

Following the dinner guests will view a display of magic by Martin Jack. The event is sponsored by the Questers.

Special recognition will be given to the family with the oldest generations and the oldest and youngest mothers attending.

Persons interested in reservations may contact Mrs. Emil Settag.

Juniors Install New Officers at Banquet

Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, outgoing president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina district, CFWC, presided at the groups installation banquet Wednesday which marked the commencement of the 1960-1961 club year.

Tables were decorated with watering cans, geranium and ivy to accent the theme, Spring Gardens. Entertainment was provided by The Manhattans Barber-Shop Quartet.

Mrs. Boulter opened the program by introducing Mrs. John R. Thuss, president of the senior Woman's Club, Mrs. Roy Apsey, president-elect, the new executive board of the Junior club, co-ordinators, past presidents, and guests.

Mrs. Clifford Trexize welcomed past presidents, Mrs. R. C. Morton, J. P. Montague, Ralph Ruffrag, Robert Mowery, Maxine Jensen, Douglas Baldwin, and J. G. Louvier.

Speaking for the past presidents, Mrs. Morton quoted "A Personal Prayer On Growing Old."

Gifts were given to graduating Juniors, Mrs. Don T. McCallman, J. G. Louvier, Barton A. Tatum, and Lee E. Allen by Mrs. W. E. Starr.

Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, installing officer, presented Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, president; Robert Davis, C. L. Briner, and Charles W. Bennett, vice presidents; Elgin E. Logsdon, recording secretary; Clayton T. Lilley, corresponding secretary; Edward D. Aiken, treasurer; John A. Hall, auditor; and Leonard Schulwitz, reporter.

Also Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, parliamentarian; Gerson A. Jacobson, philanthropy; D. E. Moore, junior-senior representative; John M. Stokley, federation chairman; and R. E. Shaw and Rufus Sandstrom, co-ordinators.

Mrs. Boulter relinquished her gavel to the new president Mrs. Ewalt, by special vote of the executive board, was made a life member of the Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. Boulter received a gift of silver from the membership in appreciation of service.

Installing officers were Clyde Satterfield, Helen Wilson, A. D. Davis, Edna Mullen, Lois Lougee, and Sally Weber.

The theme for the event was "Hearts and Flowers." Susan MacDougall was soloist, Hallie Parbois was Bible bearer, Lillian Robinson was wreath bearer, and William Sykes was flag bearer.

Guests included Nina Cheney, Mildred Apperton, Rubq' Wade, and Marie Brewer.

Day of Prayer Planned by Lutheran Women

The guild of St. Matthew Lutheran Church, 25000 Normandie Ave., Harbor City will hold a Lutheran Women's prayer day May 11.

Theme of the observance is "Pray, Praise, and Give Thanks." A worship service will take place at 7:30 p.m.

Women

Joan Briggs, Woman's Editor ★ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

PTA News

Multigrade Discussed at Waleria Panel

Victor Kilburn, principal of Waleria School, was moderator of a panel discussion on the multigrade system at a recent meeting of the school's PTA.

Other panelists were Lloyd Jones of the Torrance district instruction department, Mrs. Al Klempan, PTA president-elect, and Shirley Cullum, multigrade teacher.

Gateway Council Fetes Presidents at Meeting

Mmes. Glen Mullen, Oscar Smith, and John Kapu were hostesses at a recent meeting honoring presidents and president-elect of the Gateway Council in Mrs. Mullen's home.

Attending were Mmes. Ted Hachiya, Max Burgess, Paul Swigart, Francis Anania, Wesley Lee, Frank League, Joseph Butler, and E. N. Reese.

Also Mmes. Anthony Demaria, Leland Van Buren, David Goolsby, Joel Steele, Oscar Smith, and Glade Murchison.

Mental Health Panel

Highlight of Crenshaw PTA's recent meeting was a panel discussion entitled "Understanding Mental Health."

Panelists were Dr. Richard Roberts, Miss Evelyn Newman, social worker; John Broe, school psychologist; and Mrs. Paul Snyder.

The discussion entered on ways to help retarded children at home and at school, the difference between the normal and the retarded child.

Mrs. H. D. Robinson, library chairman, extended an invitation to parents to visit the library.

Record Crowd Attends PTA Pot-Luck Dinner

A capacity crowd attended the pot-luck dinner sponsored by the executive board of the Torrance Elementary PTA prior to the school's open-house.

The invocation was given by the Rev. G. S. Immerman. A concert was presented by the school band under direction of Neil Short.

At a brief business meeting PTA members voted to give a $100 scholarship to a Torrance High graduate.

Columbia Members Host Child Parley

Seven members of Columbia PTA accepted an invitation from Dr. Keith A. Hunsaker, director of the Southwest Schools' special-education program, to be hostesses at the recent Council for Exceptional Children's convention at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles.

Attending were Mmes. Alonzo Golds, William Luzan, Glen Scrivner, LeRoy Forehand, Paul Snyder, Harold Ritz, and Richard Farnsworth.

Scholarship Students Visit Library, Gallery

Members of the Solon Scholarship Club, upper division, of Stephan M. White School recently visited the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery in San Marino.

Accompanying them were Thomas Cox, sponsor, and Mmes. Lloyd Rowe, Jack Kenyon, and Henry Runge of the PTA.

MRS. DELBERT GAIL HUNT on her wedding day —Photo by Seeman

Double-Ring Vows Unite Patricia Lewis, D. G. Hunt

Miss Patricia Marie Lewis exchanged double-ring vows with Delbert Gail Hunt April 9 in an afternoon ceremony at Forst Christian Church. The Rev. H. Milton Sippel officiated before an altar banked in red and white flowers.

She is the daughter of Mrs. William R. Lewis, 2834 Onrado St. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brown of Pocomo.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Robert Lewis, wore chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta featuring a Southern-Belle sirt and scallop neckline detailed in sequins.

A pearl crown secured her English silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade of three white orchids with white carnations offset by red ribbons.

Miss Lorraine Lewis attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Harriet Meister, Grace Aklin, Linda Stewart, and Joclyn Meggot. All were attired in red chiffon over red taffeta with matching headpieces and white accessories.

Miss Janice Bailey wore white organdy trimmed in red for her role as flower girl. Kenneth Line was ring bearer.

Joe DiFatta served as best man. Bob Bologna, Bob Robinson, Melvin Davis, and Jerry Thomas ushered.

The mother of the bride wore white lace over teal taffeta. The bride's mother was in beige lace.

The newlyweds welcomed guests to a reception in the church hall following the service.

After a wedding trip to Big Bear they will be at home at 14668 Hubbard St., San Fernando.

The new Mrs. Hunt was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of '59. Her husband attended San Fernando High School. He is employed by Fisher's Body Plant in Van Nuys.

Mothersingers to Salute U. S.

"Salute to the States," a musical recital honoring Americans from Alaska to Alabama, will be presented by the Mothersingers of the Torrance Council PTA Friday at 8 p.m. in the Torrance High School auditorium.

Also on the program will be the Four Flats from Flavian featuring William Clary, Robert Sabus, Lois Stepp, and Betty Hickman of the Flavian School faculty.

Others participating will be the Roberts Brothers, Frances Drews, concert violinist, and Gloria Clark and Opal Herrmann in a piano debut.

Also Irene Chaney, Mimi Anderson, Lynn Bedard, Jean Felix, Louise Hoover, Norma Schaffer, Hilda Brown, Naveda Metzger, Yvonne Gardner, Lorraine Faith, Corinne Bee, Joyce Reese, Ann Franks, Dorothy Griswold, Donna Stark, Lila Ogren, Joyce Gable, Bonnie Medwed, Julia Luci, Cleo Carter, Dale Turner, Audrey Barrett, Naomi Morgan, Dorothy Style, and Ruth Neal.

And Beth Cox, Ellen Blair, Harriett Allingham, Arlene Pesar, Louie Taylor, Elizabeth Cox, Elaine Moore, Dorothy Martin, Norma Hartley, Elaine Brandt, Lourie Fletcher, Nita Tasqual, Marlene Monson, Venita Griffiths.

Gloria Clark, Donna Doyle, Nadine Madden, Alice Ferkel, June Bextel, Frill Fisher, Joyce Barker, Phyllis Calkins, Frances Drews, Martha Munson, Maureen Salsbury, Roberta Barackman, Claire McCown, Ruth Martin, Ruth Starr, Adele Farley.

Unable to attend are the Howard Wood Mothersingers who will be representing the council at the state PTA convention in San Francisco.

The unit comprises Barbara Davey, Bonnie White, Gloria Lassere, Irene Hoy, T. Treva Holloper, Mary Griffen, Emilee Boyd, and Betty Kasari.

Seen at Polynesian

Hosting friends at the Polynesian Restaurant recently were Mr. and Mrs. James D. Kirby, Mrs. David J. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Forest L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Yoder, and Mr. and Mrs. Bradford L. Polly.

Polio Clinic Tomorrow

Torrance Elementary PTA will sponsor a polio-vaccine clinic tomorrow, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., at the school, 2005 Martina St.

Inoculations will cost $1. First, second, third, and booster shots will be available to all persons more than three months of age.

The interval between inoculations is two to six weeks after the first injection and seven months to a year after the second. The fourth shot should be administered a year after the third.

Lomita Court 61, Order of Amaranth, installed Marguerite Morgan as royal matron in recent ceremonies in the Torrance Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Morgan was escorted to the altar in a gown of white satin. She carried a pink tulle heart centered with white roses.

Taking office with Mrs. Morgan were Edward Morgan, royal patron; Betty Kendall, associate matron; James Burdick, associate patron; Lois Babcock, secretary;

Ann Long, treasurer; Isabel Galera, conductress; and Aydele Burdick, associate conductress.

Also Mildred Mittan, marshal in the East; Marie Ware, prelate; Garnett Satterfield, musician; Mabel Moore, standard bearer; Joseph Galera, historian; Gerald Mittan, warden; Albert Bayes, sentinel; and A. D. Davis and Jess Kastrop, trustees.

And Gertrude Kastrop, truth; Vivian Cook, faith; Rosalie Bayes, wisdom; and Ada Ander-

INSTALLATION RITES — Edward Morgan (left), new royal patron of Lomita Court 61; Marguerite Morgan, new royal matron; Betty Kendall and James Burick, associate matron and patron, pictured at recent installation ceremonies in city's Masonic Hall.

Order of Amaranth 61 Installs New Officers

Lomita Court 61, Order of Amaranth, installed Marguerite Morgan as royal matron in recent ceremonies in the Torrance Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Morgan was escorted to the altar in a gown of white satin. She carried a pink tulle heart centered with white roses.

Taking office with Mrs. Morgan were Edward Morgan, royal patron; Betty Kendall, associate matron; James Burdick, associate patron; Lois Babcock, secretary;

Ann Long, treasurer; Isabel Galera, conductress; and Aydele Burdick, associate conductress.

Also Mildred Mittan, marshal in the East; Marie Ware, prelate; Garnett Satterfield, musician; Mabel Moore, standard bearer; Joseph Galera, historian; Gerald Mittan, warden; Albert Bayes, sentinel; and A. D. Davis and Jess Kastrop, trustees.

And Gertrude Kastrop, truth; Vivian Cook, faith; Rosalie Bayes, wisdom; and Ada Anderson, charity.

Installing officers were Clyde Satterfield, Helen Wilson, A. D. Davis, Edna Mullen, Lois Lougee, and Sally Weber.

The theme for the event was "Hearts and Flowers." Susan MacDougall was soloist, Hallie Parbois was Bible bearer, Lillian Robinson was wreath bearer, and William Sykes was flag bearer.

Guests included Nina Cheney, Mildred Apperton, Rubq' Wade, and Marie Brewer.

Installing officers were Clyde Satterfield, Helen Wilson, A. D. Davis, Edna Mullen, Lois Lougee, and Sally Weber.

The theme for the event was "Hearts and Flowers." Susan MacDougall was soloist, Hallie Parbois was Bible bearer, Lillian Robinson was wreath bearer, and William Sykes was flag bearer.

Guests included Nina Cheney, Mildred Apperton, Rubq' Wade, and Marie Brewer.