

Groups Forming to Wipe Out Death Penalty

Organization of a Los Angeles County Committee Against the Death Penalty, with offices at 8929 Wilshire Blvd., Beverly Hills, was announced today. Its purpose is circulation of initiative petitions to place capital punishment on the November ballot.

Similar committees have been organized in Northern California and in San Diego. Opponents of the death penalty in all major cities are participating in the initiative campaign.

A statement issued by the group said, "The execution of Caryl Chessman has given forceful impetus to the activities of thoughtful citizens determined to abolish the barbaric institution of capital punishment."

"Prosecutors have had their say on the death penalty in this state, but the issue has never gone to the people. Our committee believes the November presidential election with its mass turnout of voters is the best possible time to end capital punishment."

The committee may be reached by telephoning either OL 2-6886 or OL 2-8286.

King's Name May Be Written in on Congressional Ballot

Seventeenth Congressional District Republicans wishing to cast their vote for Rep. Cecil R. King in the June primaries were assured today that a write-in of his name on their ballot would be counted as an official vote by the registrar of voters.

The announcement was made by Hugh P. Doherty, South Bay businessman and chairman of the Republican Committee for Cecil R. King. "While I strongly favor the two-party system, and as a Republican I vote for my party," Doherty declared, "in this district one must take into consideration the qualifications and results of the candidate who has a proven record of outstanding service for the best interests of all its people, as has Congressman King, and I urge that Republicans as well as Democrats return him to office in the primary election."

Although King's name will not be found on the Republican ballot," Doherty stated that "all we need do is to be sure to take pen or pencil to the polls with us and write in the name 'Cecil R. King' on election day and our vote will be officially counted in favor of the veteran legislator."

King, who has not been able to take an active part in his re-election campaign due to his official duties in Washington, is standing for election to his 10th term in Congress.
