Torrance Man Gets New Post

Mrs. Kathryn Kaufman, 23309 S. Arlington, Torrance, received news that her husband, USA Lt. Col. Eldeen H. Kaufman has assumed duties as Assistant Secretary, United Nations Command Military Armistice Commission, Seoul, Korea.

The new assistant secretary was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and was formerly the Executive Officer of the First Airborne Battalion, 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

GOOD LUCK CLASP—Looking forward to a November win, Torrance Democrats get well wishes from Mayor Al Ison (left) and Vincent Thomas (right), assemblyman, 68th District, as they greet Roger West, president of Torrance Democratic Club. New headquarters for the group, 1607 Cabrillo, will be opened officially Saturday, Sept. 18, with refreshments served. Public is invited.

Local Instructor Joins Trade-Tech

Joining the faculty of the Extended Day Division at Los Angeles Trade-Technical College, John Broe, 17036 Daphne Ave., Torrance, will teach a course in personal and social adjustment this fall.

Broe comes to Trade-Tech from El Camino College where he is an instructor and counseling psychologist. He has been a school psychologist for five years and an instructor for three years.

The new instructor attended Citrus Junior College and Claremont Graduate School where he received his teacher training.

Camino Teachers Welcomed

Bjornndal, a graduate of the University of Oslo, is married; he and his wife have a child, Arild, three years of age.

Two additional instructors will join the division of social sciences. They are Miss Margaret Barber of Hollywood and Dr. Mildred Sayre Miller of Redondo Beach.

Dr. Miller is a native of Lockport, New York; she is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, where she completed work for her bachelor of science degree, and of Columbia University of Chicago and Chicago Musical College.

Three new instructors will join the division of applied arts and sciences.

Joining the staff as an instructor of home economics will be Mrs. Hazel M. Kuehn, a native of Conrad, Iowa, and now a resident of Torrance.

Mrs. Kuehn received her bachelor of science and master of science degrees in home economics at Iowa State University. She has also completed advanced study at Teachers' College, Columbia University in New York, State University of Iowa, and Iowa State Teachers' College.

The new home economics instructor has taught at Oskaloosa High School, Oskaloosa, Iowa; East High School, Waterloo, Iowa; Iowa State University; Colorado State University; and at Texas Tech in Lubbock. She was called upon to assist the United States Office of Education, vocational division, in preparing a bulletin on the "Teaching of Related Science," spending three months in Washington in completing this project.

Immediately prior to accepting employment at El Camino College, she served as home economist in consumer information in Black Hawk County, Iowa, for four years.

Teaching business subjects will be Miss Maxine Treven-then, a resident of Manhattan Beach who was born in Seattle, Wash.

Also taking a post as a business instructor at El Camino is John B. Allen, a resi-

NOW! The Piano the Whole Family "Can Play"

THE NEW PIANOLA

THE SPINET THAT IS A PLAYER-PIANO

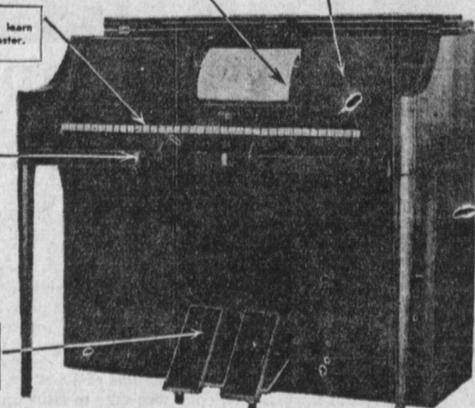

an exciting new player-piano with fingertip and pedal controls that let you play all your favorite songs — even if you've never had a lesson in your life!

And the Player-Piano That is a Spinet! yes, the Pianola is also a manual spinet for standard play — a beautiful, ultra-compact spinet, rich in tone, responsive to the touch.

So compact, so modern — give your home that "lived-in" magic look.

Song words printed on music rolls — great for parties — everybody plays and sings.

Pianola helps you learn to play manually faster.

By pressing a button you get a zither or mandolin effect.

Active relaxation makes you feel years younger playing all the old favorites.
