RE-ELECT THOMAS ASSEMBLY

Grahamzell Chapter Slates Rummage Sale

Anna Grahamzell chapter of the Mount Sinai Cancer Hospital will sponsor a rummage sale to be held at 2007 Carson St., formerly the department of employment building.

The sale will begin at 9:30 a.m. and continue until 5 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 9; Thursday, Nov. 10; and Friday, Nov. 11.
According to Berdine Kaplan, chairman of the event and president of the local chapter, there will be bargains galore and wise shoppers should be sure to come early.

For further information, Mrs. Kaplan may be called at FR 5-0182.

COFFEE HOUR

On November 1 Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gordon, held a coffee hour for Richard Glasier, Republican Assembly candidate for the 68th Assembly District and Tom Coffee, Republican incumbent for Congress in the 17th congressional district.

Coffee hour was held around the pool at the home of Mrs. Florence Finney.

Author Richard Armour To Make Wednesday Harbor JC Appearance

"Laughing at Ourselves," humorous lecture by author Richard Armour, will be presented at Harbour College Wednesday, Nov. 9, at 8 p.m., as the third event of the current college forum series.

Nominally priced lecture tickets are now on sale at the college finance office, or they may be purchased at the box office Wednesday night, beginning at 7 p.m.

Armour has been called a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde because he leads a double life as a serious scholar and writer of hilarious humor and satire.

On the serious side, he has a Ph.D from Harvard and has taught at such universities as Texas, Northwestern, Hawaii, and Freiburg. He is now professor of English at Scripps College and the Claremont Graduate School.

Scholarly Biographer
He has done scholarly research in England and France, has written biography and criticism, is on the editorial staff of two magazines, and does book reviews for several newspapers. He served in the Army in both World War II and the Korean War, rising to the rank of colonel.

Most widely known for light verse and prose, Armour has written 20 books, among them such best sellers as "Nights With Armour" and "It All Started With Columbus."
