Utah Honeymoon for Newlyweds

MRS. ARDALE THOMAS
... nee Barbara Percy

Mr. and Mrs. Ardale Thomas, 360 E. 224 St., are at home after a honeymoon in Utah following their wedding Oct. 22 at the Church of the Latter Day Saints.

The bride, Barbara Percy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Price, Redondo, wore a gown of Chantilly lace with a billowy skirt when she was given in marriage by her father.

Her illusion veil was caught by a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white orchids encircled by red and white carnations.

Bishop Alfred Ostergren officiated when Miss Percy and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Thomas of Enterprize, Utah pledged their vows.

The brides attendants wore gowns of red taffeta and velvet fashioned princess style with matching veils and shoes. They carried cascades of red and white carnations.

Serving as Maid of honor was Miss Helen Corley. Bridesmaids were Misses Joyce Corley, Lillian Madrid and Kathy O'Mera.

Gordon Thomas, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Denny Smith, Lorenzo Salanias, and Robert Percy, brother of the bride.

Following the reception, held in the church hall, the newlyweds departed for Utah where they traveled through the state visiting friends and relatives.

The new Mrs. Thomas graduated from Redondo Union High School and attended El Camino College.

Thomas is employed by R. C. Mahon in Torrance.

FIRST SESSION of school is held at the Garden Valley Center Association for Retarded Children. Instructor Larry Neece (standing) is starting regular class sessions. The first day of school was Nov. 1. Attending were Ronda

Andrews, Larry Stark, Leo Kasakuba, Philip Turner, Joe Pecora, Susan Daffin and Steven Bennett. The Center is temporarily housed at Temple Beth Torah, 14725 Gramercy Place.

Rev. Beadles Attends Methodist Conclave

The Reverend David Beadles, Waleria Methodist Church, 3646 Newton Street, will be attending the Southern California-Arizona Methodist conference at the denomination's Camp Colby, north of La Canada in the Angeles National Forest, Nov. 7 to 9.

Bishop Gerald Kennedy called the unprecedented meeting of 120 Methodist pastors to consider the church's purpose and program. All of the men who will attend are within the first five years of their ministry.

It is believed to be the first meeting of its kind among Methodist clergymen on the Pacific Coast.

Bishop Kennedy said he was hopeful the conference would help young preachers over some hurdles early in their careers. "Looking back on my own experience, I think such a meeting would have been valuable to help me understand why the church has certain programs, why it does certain things," he said.

In addition to Bishop Kennedy, leaders will include Dr.

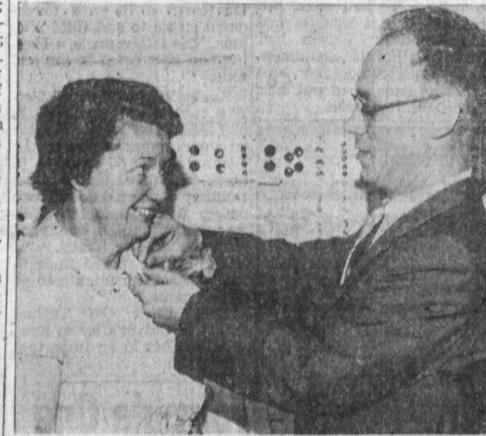

Harry Denman, Nashville, Tennessee, general secretary of the church's Board of Evangelism; Dr. Marvin Stuart, First Methodist Church, Palo Alto; Dr. J. Wesley Hole, Conference treasurer; and Verne Orr, Sr., well-known Pasadena layman and a delegate to the church's recent General Conference.

We will meet the challenge!

From Cuba to the Congo, from Turkey to Tokyo, the world is in turmoil, breaking the old allegiances. Here at home too many areas of our national life suffer from neglect.

We will meet the challenges of a stormy world with the leadership of men and a party that will face our problems and do something about them.

"The challenging sixties demand that the next President place himself in the thick of the fight, that he care passionately about the fate of the people he leads."

These are the words of leadership, the words of Senator John F. Kennedy, Democratic candidate for President.

Your choice is between a party of action and a party of indifference. Between a man of principles and a man of question marks. It is time for a Democratic President who will bring new American leadership. It is time to elect John F. Kennedy President of the United States.

Business Women Hear Beach Symphony Quartet

Members of the Business Women's Club of Waleria will be privileged to hear a quartet composed of members of the Beach Cities Symphony Association at the regular monthly meeting scheduled, 8 p.m., November 8 at the Jump 'N Jack Restaurant.

The quartet composed of Alex Pierce, first violinist; Jack Shulman, second violinist; Paul Bennett, Viola; and Otto Muldenhaver, cello.

The musicians will play many of the favorite tunes of the past era. They perform regularly with the Beach Cities Symphony Orchestra that gives four concerts a year at the Redondo Union High School.

Under the direction of Louis Palange, the orchestra has a performance, December 9th.

According to Mrs. John Barton, membership tea chairman, the meeting and quartet performance should not be missed.
