Sorority Studies New State, Hawaii

The cultural program based on the volcanic formation of the Hawaiian Islands and the old Hawaiian legends of gods and demi-gods presented by President Fran Nichols was the highlight of the regular meeting of Xi Zeta Lambda chapter, Beta Sigma Phi held last week at the home of Mrs. William Schroeder of Lawndale. The study of Hawaii, our newest state, is proving a fascinating subject for all the members.

Miss Dorothy Corham was welcomed into the chapter, transferring from Dixon, Illinois. Miss Corham resides in Gardena and teaches elementary school in Long Beach.

Topics discussed were forthcoming formal rituals to be held Nov. 15 at the Palms Restaurant in Torrance, the South Bay Area Council Christmas luncheon to be held Dec. 10 at the Tasman Sea and the chapter banquet to be held Dec. 28 in true Hawaiian style at the Polynesian Restaurant.

Nine members will also represent the chapter at the forthcoming Southern California Council breakfast meeting on Nov. 20, at the Biltmore Bowl. San Gabriel Valley Council is hostess to the event.

MONTOYA CONCERT

Fantastic fingering, musical pyrotechnics, and his creative improvisations during concerts have served to make Montoya known all over the world as the virtuoso of this instrument and style music.

POPULAR Island performer Entertaining at the third anniversary celebration of The Polynesian, exotic restaurant in Torrance, will be Sterling Mossman. Honolulu's top niter star appears Nov. 22 through Nov. 27 with his entire island show from The Barefoot Bar at Waikiki Beach.

Announce Florist Queen

The International Florists Association has selected film and TV actress K. T. Stevens to reign as its 1961 flower queen and to act as honored guest at the annual Japanese cherry blossom festival during March-April in Washington, D. C.

Hugh Marlowe, actor-husband of Miss Stevens, will also be guest-of-honor at the spring festival, where she will be officially crowned "American Beauty" by the Board of Trade.

The international association, in conjunction with the event, will spark a national marketing and advertising program to equal the "Say It With Flowers" campaign conducted 25 years ago by the American Society of Florists.
